Day One Leaving To Space

Canada was walking in the hallway at the station he was about to go to his room but someone stop him it was the commander he look at Canada "you guys are leaving today so you better get everything in your room and wait at the spaceship for the others" Canada nod "yeah I will uh thanks" he left to his room in a hurry he was excited

Canada grab pictures and added music to his laptop he was happy but when he was about to leave his room he look at the emptiness he frown Canada remember when he first started training he sighed as he closed the door leaving to the spaceship he look at how it look Canada then look over to one of his crew mate who was talking to himself

Canada walk to him "how are you feeling? About this all?" The other person was anxious "uh this been my dream as a kid my whole life but it came too soon" another person came out of nowhere "hopefully we don't die up there" Canada look at the others expression he was terrified so Canada went to hug him

"it's going to be all fine you can trust us to keep each other safe right?" The person awkwardly smile "yeah" Canada just laugh "ok see you in the ship" so Canada went up to the ship to put his stuff somewhere and the co-commander look at Canada "we got five minutes until the countdown start so go help the others" so Canada went and told his other crewmates

Canada help them out and everyone went in the ship Canada and others went to their seat and the co-commander look at all of her crew "ready" Canada and the others nod and right before you know it the countdown started as all of them started getting ready and some pressing buttons to help them out Canada started to feel anxious

Then all you hear was 3 2 1 and the ship started to shake moving upwards Canada started to freak out but hold his breath as the sky started to change colour and made it to space Canada watch his spacesuit helmet fog up as he was breathing too fast and started to get light headed he heard the co-commander ask if everyone was ok but he fainted

Another day pass in space

Canada woke up yawning his head ache a little bit he touch his head he was fine Canada look around he was in a room then a bright light hit his eyes which he flinch and look away the person jump "oh yes your awake and sorry if that hurt your eyes" Canada rubbed his eyes "yeah that hurt" the person frown "I'm sorry I didn't meant it"

Canada look at him looking at the room "where are we?" The person laugh "were in space in the satellite so we're circling earth" Canada look at the window "wow.. where's the others?" The person grabbed Canada's hands "follow me their in the main room" Canada got pulled out of bed and stand up he started to get light headed

"Wait wait" the person look back at Canada as he almost fall "sorry all the blood just rushed—" "no it's fine I should be sorry I just forgot" Canada stand there for a bit seeing the colours go away "ok I'm fine" the two walk to the main room "oh I see he's awake that's good" the person smiled "yeah and—" "and now it's time to go back to work"

Canada nod so they went and work on writing and giving data on what's going on also cleaning is accepting after the day Canada sat alone by himself in the room looking at the window feeling weird starring at the stars then earth he wasn't ready for this at least Canada thought he wasn't ready himself he sighed then someone came in

"Hey- feeling homesick?" Canada shrug "no idea" the person sat on the other bed "were roommates come on you can say anything" Canada look back at the person "roommates?" The person laugh "yeah I kinda made you my roommate it was either you or the other girl" Canada grab his blankets "the co-commander?"

The person shake their head "no the other girl?" Canada haven't seen the other girl "who?" The person laugh "that's it I don't know who she is" Canada realize "who are you.. I mean what's your name" the person shrug "call me whatever I don't really give myself a name I let anyone call me anything" Canada frown "is that bad"

The person shake their head "no of course it's funny and makes me happy to see what names they choose for me" Canada lay down on his bed covering himself up "what do you want me to call you?" The person laugh "that's not how it works you have to call me something" Canada lay there in his bed thinking "what if you don't like it?"

The other person chuckle "the worst thing you can probably call me is inappropriate names so don't worry about it" Canada sighed and stretch out "I don't know it's weird" the person look at Canada confused he wasn't thinking "you want to call me weird? Uh ok?" Canada sat up fast looking at him "no no no that's not what I meant"

The person lay down "it's fine" Canada frown "no That wasn't going to be the one it was going to be Leaf" the person look at him with an unexplainable expression "Leaf? I like it why did you choose that name" Canada look at himself and look at him "I have no idea" saying it sarcastically the person realizes and smack his face as he fall back down on the bed

"That was a dumb question" Canada lay down "maybe to you but not to me it made me laugh—" "You Guys Are Supposed To Be Sleeping!! We Got A Lot To Do Tomorrow!!" Canada covered up in the blankets as Leaf Yell Back "Yeah Like What Do Cleaning And Writing!!!" It went quiet and Leaf lay back down "good night Canada hopefully we can become good friends"

Canada look at Leaf and laugh "I thought we were already friends" Leaf look at him dumbfounded "w- what" Canada shake his head "nothing go to bed now" Canada turn away from him facing the wall to avoid staying up all night talking about unnecessary random things with his new friend

Day 3. in space

Canada woke up and Leaf was shaking him up "hurry up you slept in" Canada sighed and got up doing what they normally do it was boring Canada then started looking around the ship/satellite it had a lot of things then when he was about to open a door Leaf scared him "Ra! Scared ya" Canada glared "Whatever I wasn't scared"

Leaf shake his head smiling "lies lies lies! I seen your body jump out of your skin" Canada sighed looking at Leaf "fine you did freak me out-" "scared yeah" Canada chuckle "ok smarty pants go do your work" Leaf shake his head "I did everything already I don't know what to do so I came over looking for you"

Canada smile "yeah I finished everything so I'm just wondering around bored" so the two went in the room looking at everything and went out looking at all the rooms everything was mostly bright colour buttons or computers or something the two went to the no gravity door and walk away "we can't go through there—" a bell rung which confused the two so they went to the main room "oh where were you guys you shouldn't be at the no gravity zone unless you have to do something over there like work" the two apologize then Canada question "what's with the bell?" The co-commander look at Leaf "what's with the camera?" Canada look at Leaf as he put it behind his back

"Just for memories" the co-commander look at Canada "the bell is to let you guys know it's break or lunch or whatever just time to relax and eat" Canada nod "that's interesting ok" Leaf walk away "ok I'll eat later" Canada just sat down at the table eating food by himself he usually has Leaf with him after a while they all went back to the rooms

Canada went to his room to see Leaf laying in bed on a laptop Canada look at Leaf "what's up?" Leaf look at Canada "nothing much just doing a project actually two projects" Canada look at Leaf interested "oh what's it about" Leaf shut his laptop "uh you can't see it.. it's kinda special to me I'll show it to you when I'm done with both of them I promise your going to love it" Canada smiled and lay in bed "ok" the two lay down and fall asleep

2 Small Times Happens

Three Months In Space

Canada got up and Leaf was happy Canada yawned "what's going on" Leaf hop up and down "it's your birthday happy birthday" Canada been alive for quite a while he just stretch and lay back down "it's too early maybe next time" Leaf couldn't believe this he stare at Canada "hello? It's your birthday?!" Canada sighed "sorry I'm not in the mood"

Leaf grab the blankets "no come on get up" Canada sighed and got out of bed "fine" Leaf grab Canada's hands walking around the ship doing their jobs it wasn't bad they always had the most fun talking to each other about random things then the other girl walk past them and Leaf look back and started walking again Canada seen that and smirk

"Uh what was that?!" Leaf look at Canada "what was what?" Canada laugh in disbelief "you look over your shoulder" Leaf put the garbage away "y- yeah and what? Help me out?" Canada sighed "who was over your shoulder that girl was passing" Leaf shook his head "yeah and?" Canada look at Leaf eye to eye "are you completely there!"

Leaf shrug Canada sighed "you check her out is that what you want me to say" Leaf jump "what ew no I seen that they were holding a lot I was thinking about helping her" Canada smirk nudging Leaf "way to be a gentleman" Leaf push Canada away "shut up why are we making this day about me it's about you" Canada sighed "fine"

Leaf walk to the no gravity zone "coming?" Canada look at the door "sure" the two went through Canada look at how everything was "where are we going?" Leaf pointed at a room so the two went through the room Canada kinda hitting the walls "wow this place is unsteady" Leaf chuckle "unless your just unstable" Canada laugh "unless your in my way"

Canada moved pass Leaf to only hit another wall "I completely forgot how I move my body" Leaf laugh really hard "what grade did you get on no gravity" Canada look away "a good enough score to be up here" the two came across the room and Leaf did something fast then started to go back out "were done"

Canada glared "ok" so the two went out of the no gravity place and got clean up then Canada look at the last work thing he has to do air insulation and that was outside so he sighed then Leaf look at the sheet "mhm need help?" Canada shake his head "no I'm fine I just hate doing this one" then Canada heard "HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!" Canada jolted to see the crew was standing there

The co-commander look at Canada "Leaf plan this out" Canada look at Leaf "uh thanks" Leaf look mad at Canada "Uh thanks? Give me a hug!" So Canada just laugh and gave Leaf a hug "ok I'm sorry thanks for planning this out I don't mean to be an asshole" Leaf gave Canada a pat "ok go do your last job and we'll come back to this"

Canada shook his head he was actually happy he barely celebrates his birthday with anyone but when someone puts everything out of their way to do it for him Canada was just excited so he went to the no gravity zone and went to the spacesuits he grab the one that fits him Canada puts on his helmet and look at his air tank he went out with a rope tied on to him

Canada climb on some bars that would help him up he hated how his body would go upwards so Canada hold the bars tight as he went to the air insulation and took off the led cleaning the stuff that was going to get stuck he put the led back on and climb back down and grab his rope to bring him back to the entrance of the ship

He ending up going back in and doing everything that he was supposed to do the Leaf came along "hurry up just wear the spacesuit" so Canada didn't take it off going back to the party and they look at the two confused mostly looking at Canada "what's with the spacesuit" Canada look at Leaf "he couldn't be patient"

The co-commander just smiled "at least your here-" "we need to take a picture of all of us" Canada look at everyone gathering up and the guy look at Canada "hurry up birthday boy" Canada just shake his head smiling he stand there and Leaf hold the phone up high "ok what should we say" the co-commander then yelled "just take a picture"

Everyone smiled and Canada took off his helmet "thank you guys" the picture was taking and Canada just throw the helmet to Leaf "catch" Leaf catch it "wow ok" Canada hug him "thanks" then they all had cake and Leaf was videoing what everyone was doing and everyone was having a good time Canada blow out the candles on the cake

As the song ended Leaf cut the cake and handed out to everyone and everyone ate then Leaf jump up "oh be right back I got your presents" the co-commander just slap a sticker on Canada's spacesuit on the arm "that's my gift just so you remember how to float in space" Canada just glared "did Leaf tell you that" she smiled "yeah he told me to help you learn so that's tomorrow's lesson"

Then Leaf come out of the room with a blanket "it has petals I couldn't find something that had Leafs so it doesn't make since but here" Canada look at it "thanks" Leaf look at the sticker "pink sticker that says loser and it has rainbow wow I wonder who gave that to you" Leaf stared at the co-commander who was snickering "fine how did you know?"

Canada just started zoning out starring at the petal blanket and everyone else who was having a good time then he look at Leafs camera then Leaf look at him smiling "that's videoing right now that's my other project and if you don't mind I'm going to send you the video when I'm done we'll if it stops it'll go straight to you and I already send the picture to you"

Canada smiled then the room started flashing red and white and Canada and the other jump the co-commander already left to find out what's was happening everyone followed her asking questions she look at the screen and smiled "everyone it's alright just going to be a little shake because rocks are coming our way" everyone calm down and the alarm stop

So they went back to the main room as the co-commander stayed at the front of the ship and Leaf laugh "pfft you guys look scared" the other guy glared "I wasn't scared I was just anxious we're in space" Canada nudge Leaf "I seen you Leaf you were scared too don't lie" Leaf smirk "you too" Canada smiled "at least I can admit to me being scared"

Then the ship/satellite started to shake Canada jolted "woah" Leaf look at the ground "it feels like the ground is vibrating" then the guy laugh "rookies" then they all fall to the ground hearing something loud "what was-" a loud noise happened as the alarm going off Canada look at Leaf "what's going-" Leaf look behind them seeing the co-commander yelling "GO!!—"

They all seen the co-commander fall back hitting the wall hard Canada and the other stand up then heard one bigger noise as the alarm was getting louder Leaf look at Canada scared then Leaf heard something else looking back to hear the vents breaking so Leaf put the helmet on Canada

Leaf freaking out pushing him in the closet as another explosion was heard and Canada hit the wall hard knocking him out

Three months and two days in space

Canada woke up hearing a beeping noise and the ringing it hurt his ears he open the door breathing heavily Canada look at his now dead friends he was about to throw up but couldn't his body tremble starring his breathe was hitching his legs stop working as he seen their body's Canada look away from the site feeling sick he was crying so much freaking out

He stayed there for what felt like two hours he forgot about the beeping noise Canada walk to the front of the ship starring at the screen as it has a lot of errors he click on them and the errors said the vents were breached so Canada click on something and a video showed up he watch as he seen him doing the air insulation

Canada watch closely as he left the led started to slowly float away and Canada got another camera area of the vents as it went back to the led and the tiny rocks meteors came along going inside the vents he paused the video he was in shock showing only sorry Canada cried more he fall to the ground feeling like he could barely

breath his breathe kept hitching

Canada look at the screen and it said downloading Canada got up seeing that's it was downloading to somewhere he stop the downloading his hands were shaking as he stare at the screen he seen the button delete Canada hand kept stopping as it went closer to the button then he press it watching the videos of him doing that disappeared

Canada fall to the ground holding himself just crying and shaking then he grab a bar breaking all the screens and the buttons he was pissed at himself Canada was lost in his own anger breaking things after a bit he stop he tried to lay down but he felt himself floating Canada stare at the ceiling disappointed he was mad that he didn't die

Then just remembering Leafs smile broke his heart Canada couldn't believe he killed them all because the led fall off he heard a beeping so Canada look at his air tank it was low he didn't care he was losing hope anyway then bunch memories of all of them came up he shake his head hearing all of them say it's his fault

Canada then heard Leafs voice in his head saying "come on keeping moving" Canada knew that was just in his head but it felt real he felt tears going down his face Canada went back to their dead body's then looking at Leaf who was frozen to death Canada felt guilty he hated himself he then put their body's in the closet so they don't go anywhere

Canada was about to go to the room and sleep but something was caught on his leg Canada look down to see a fabric he grab it and froze seeing that it was the blanket but theirs burns and it was ripped Canada stare at it he tied it around his leg he started to feel more home he look at his air tank he only has a couple hours left

Canada started to hold his breath he went and grab his laptop and it was crack and the screen barely showed Canada tap the screen and it kept glitching he look close to the screen seeing the random colours Canada seen a file so he click on it showing the map and times where all the satellites were at he seen a satellite was going to be passing him in a day

Canada look at his air tank only has 11 hours so he started holding his breath more then thirty seconds he counted in his head making sure he doesn't cough or accidentally breathe in a lot of air Canada sat there preparing himself when to jump he closed his eyes thinking about everything

Canada started to whimper and cry his body had no control he felt like shit he was shaking Canada forgot their were to many numbers in his head then he grab his air tank air tube wanting to just die there then Canada heard Leaf voice "jump" Canada got back to reality realizing he could barely breathe he look at the air tank

Five minutes Canada cough as he felt the oxygen slowly leaving so Canada seen the satellite passing he leap freaking out moving his body a bit as he grab the rope that has a bar piece at the end Canada throw it as the rope got stuck he climb on the rope feeling dizzy Canada hands started to slip his lungs hurt then he heard Leaf again saying "Keep Going"

Canada got a little strength together and climb on to the ship he cough harshly feeling sick Canada got to the door and hit it with the bar almost falling off he crouch down breathing fast as the oxygen was gone Canada look up to see a camera starring right back at him it was on just seeing the red light Canada couldn't say anything everything started to hurt the door finally open

3 Where Two Stars Meet

Three Months And Two Days In Space

Canada push himself up and walk in as the door close he met eyes with another door as the air started to get clean the door open no one was waiting for him so he walk in immediately gets whack down with something hard Canada hit the floor on his chest he cried out feeling his lungs get struck by a wave of pain

The other person spoke a different language "почему ты здесь(why are you here)" the guy spoke really threatening grabbing on to Canada "why are you here" the guy ask and Canada understand him he started to slowly and he closed his eyes the guy took off Canada's helmet looking at him Canada finally breathe but he was getting light headed

The guy just stare at Canada then grabs his arm looking at something on his suit then heard him say something "дерьмо(shit)" Canada fainted everything went dark for a while Canada heard Leaf voice "wake up" Canada woke up harshly coughing he groan as his lungs hurt he was tied up well only his arms Canada look at his arms moving them only a bit

Then he heard someone "your up... why are you here" Canada just stare at the person who tied him up Russia he look away going back to trying to get whatever tied his hands behind his back off Russia sighed "why would you risk everything just to come here" Canada stop and look at Russia "..." he has nothing to say

Russia glared "I'm not going to help you unless you answer my questions" Canada just look down noticing his legs weren't tied he lay down moving his arm under then over his legs which hurt a lot Russia just stand there and watch "are you listening to me?" Canada brought his hands to his face biting the rope

Russia grab his hands "why are you here?" Canada just stare at him no expression Russia look away mad "stop starring at me and say something" Canada moved his hands squirming Russia let go "so your just not even going to say anything" Canada got the rope off his hands

Russia look back at Canada to see him stand up Russia quickly notice something "your small to be a big country or its because I was expecting something different" Canada look down at his feet then back at Russia "..." Russia sighed "your harmless anyway" Russia walk out of the room locking it

Canada look at the room everything started to feel off he couldn't even till what was wrong his breathing was getting faster by a second Canada sat by the door as tears go down his face he started to remember what he did the people that he killed he didn't mean to kill them but the worst thing is not being able to say sorry or anything to them

Canada sat there in shame and guilt crying his body was shaking then the doors open and Canada body jolted Russia look at Canada "what's wrong?" Canada hid his face he didn't want anyone to look at him he felt like to puke Russia frown "would you like to talk?" Canada sat there shaking "..."

Russia went to the bed grabbing the blankets and throw it on Canada "fine don't talk" Russia walk out as Canada grab the blankets wrapping it around him it was actually comfy it made him feel safe then his eyes widen where's his spacesuit he look at the room empty no sign of it

Canada stand up as he walk to the door it open on its self he peek out of the room holding the blanket for comfort Canada seen his spacesuit sitting by Russia's spacesuit so Canada walk to it his steps were quiet he grab it placing it on the ground looking for the fabric he doesn't remember where he put it

Canada stand up looking at his helmet that was hanging up he seen the fabric inside so he stretch trying to grab it but he couldn't he tried again "your leaving?" Canada stop he got scared but it was more of fear of getting spotted Russia sighed "that was it huh just wanted to come here and rest and go back?"

Canada hold his hands looking at his spacesuit he didn't know who's ship/satellite this was until he got here and Canada doesn't want to leave he stare at the door that was the entrance he started having a memory come up about Leaf he look down tears were falling he immediately put the blanket in front of his face

Russia was awfully confused "I don't mind you staying here but your going have to leave soon I can't keep you here" Canada hated thinking about Leaf he just wanted all of his feelings destroyed he's very guilty Canada started to cry and Russia stand there awkwardly "is their something bothering you? You don't want to head back?"

Canada stand up his body was shaking he look down at his feet he was about to walk to his room "Canada?" Hearing his name made his heart ache he started to tear up more wiping away the tears he wasn't sure what he was doing but he turn to Russia looking down seeing that he was there standing beside him

Canada wasn't sure why it was comforting him and so he lean on to Russia and wrap his arms around him Russia jolted lifting up his arms looking down at Canada he had mix feelings of wanting him to get off of him but hearing Canada cry just made him feel strange Russia gently try to get Canada off

Canada didn't want to let go he felt safe Russia ends up having to do it the hard way and getting Canada off him "don't hug me" he tried saying it harsh but it came out as hesitant and nervous Canada hold his own hands he look scared but upset Russia just stare at Canada he wanted to say something but didn't so he walk away

Canada look at Russia he hated seeing him walk away he hold his breathe as he walk to Russia and stayed by him Russia look back seeing Canada he was quiet "what?" Canada shake as he grab Russia and hug him again Russia jolted looking at Canada "what did I say" Canada didn't care he felt comfort from it

Russia sighed he grab Canada and was going to push him off but he felt how thin Canada was he frown "when's the last time you ate?" Canada look at Russia's hands on his sides he moved them off grabbing the blanket covering himself up look away Russia look at the fridge "follow me" Canada walk with Russia to the fridge

Russia grab something as he warmed it up he put it on a plate and put it in front on Canada's face "eat" Canada his stomach twist but he grab it and glance up at Russia then look away Russia glared "so when are you going to start speaking" Canada went and sat on the ground eating it

Russia sighed "still no word are you French?" Canada rolled his eyes and still ate as Russia heard the radio going off so he walk to it "Привет?(hello?)" on the other end of the radio he heard "да ладно ты жив(oh well your alive)" Russia was confused "да?(yes?)" the other person on the radio sighed

"только что слышал, как взорвался спутник(just heard a satellite explode)" Russia look at the radio "а кто это был?(and who was it?)" the guy flipped a few papers "Канада(Canada)" Russia coughed "что(what)" the guy sighed "да, я этого не ожидал(yes, I didn't expect that)"

Russia look at Canada who was just sitting beside his legs looking bored "Можно я задам тебе вопрос?(May I ask you a question?) the guy yawn "Конечно(sure)" Russia whispered "Канада все еще жив(Canada is still alive) the other person went quiet "Откуда вы знаете?(how do you know?"

Russia look at Canada and moved his leg and Canada moved close to him again "он здесь со мной(he is here with me)" the other person just sighed "хорошо послушай меня внимательно(ok listen to me carefully)" Russia nod "да я слушаю(yes, I'm listening) the guy started writing things down

"держи их там с собой и я расскажу, что будет в следующем месяце (Keep him there with you and I'll tell you what's going to happen next month or so)" Russia shake his head "нет, я не хочу, чтобы он здесь, я пришлю его в аварийной капсуле, тогда вы, ребята, разберетесь (no I don't want him here I'll send him on the emergency pod then you guys can deal with him)" the person sighed "это всего на пару месяцев (it's only for a couple of months)" Russia growl "Я полагаю (fine)"

Russia got off the radio leaning back on his chair mad Canada look up at him yawning tired Russia look at Canada "tired same here"

Canada lay down on the floor Russia look at him "need anything?" Canada was about to fall asleep but heard Russia got up so he immediately got up look at him "..!" Russia look at Canada "what?"

Canada stand up still tired Russia frown "what's wrong" Canada just rubbed his eyes tired and look at Russia waiting "..." Russia glared as he walk away going to his room and Canada just followed Russia pause to hear extra foot steps following behind him "stop following me" Canada just stayed close to him Russia turn around looking at Canada

"Your tired why are you following me go to your room" Canada look at the empty room across the hall Russia just walk in his own room so Canada followed Russia stop and growl "do you not listen" Canada scratch his hand as he look at the other room not wanting to go in there Russia sighed grabbing Canada and put him in the room

"your room now sleep because your tired" Russia turn away about to leave but Canada grab on to Russia's arm Russia flinch "what's with..." Russia look at Canada who was scared "scared of the dark? Need a night light" Russia said in kinda mean way Canada look away starring at the room it wasn't the dark that scared him it's that empty feeling

Russia sighed "Just go to—" Canada hug him before he can leave the room and Russia stare at Canada wanting to be mad but it actually felt nice having someone else in the ship then himself "I hate you so much" is all what he said trying to walk away to his room Canada stayed hugging him and Russia went to his bed

"Your not sleeping in the same bed as me so—" Canada didn't mind he sat on the ground and lean on the bed Russia for some reason hated seeing that so he exhale grumpy "I'm started to feel like your doing everything on purpose and making me feel like I have to do everything on my own"

Canada look at Russia frowning and stand up Russia glared "no it's fine I guess I'll go grab a mattress" so Canada stayed beside him Russia grab one and went back to the room putting it on the floor far away from his bed "there now sleep your getting me tired when

I'm not supposed to be sleeping right now"

Canada sat on the mattress and hold the blanket ".." he stare up at Russia and Russia immediately look away "ok I should go" Canada stand up Russia growl "stay" Canada stand there and sat back down Russia look at him "ok good" Russia left the room and Canada curl up on the bed and couldn't sleep

4 The Sun

Three Months And four Weeks In Space

Russia was having breakfast as Canada stayed by him Russia honestly is still trying to get used of someone else always there since Canada isn't talking so he's quiet and it's like tricking Russia's mind "Canada can you at least give me signals or signs of some kind of emotion that will help me out when I'm talking to you"

Canada look at Russia still no expression then went back to eating Russia sighed "how about drawing you know like writing notes would that help?" Canada finished eating putting everything away Russia look at Canada "so nothing not even going to huff at me" Canada look past Russia looking outside

Space was an amazing thing to look at since now they can actually see what everything looks like behind a blind eye Russia frown "so... that's it?" Canada walk past Russia and look at the window "..." Russia look at the window squinting his eyes because the sun is so bright he look away "fine have it your way"

Russia walk away Canada look at Russia walking away and followed him "..!" Russia stop in his tracks starring down at Canada "..." Canada just blink a couple times Russia sighed "I should give you a notebook" the two walk in the room as Russia grab a note book giving it to Canada "say something"

Canada look at the notebook holding it in his hands he stare at it feeling anxious Canada sat on the ground drawing Russia glared "your completely useless" Canada rip out the paper turning it to a rolled up ball throwing it a Russia which surprised Russia "wow" Canada hold his hands a bit guilty

Russia laugh "that's funny I actually never seen you react to something like that" Canada started to write something down Russia watch interested as he kneel down to Canada's size trying to read it but it was French Russia completely gave up he stand up "and of course I knew it your French"

Canada smiled as he rip out the paper rolling it up why did that made him smile maybe because it reminded him of a little bit of home getting America his older brother mad at him the way he stresses out at a simple thing that's language is funny Russia was in shock "you smiled" Canada look away

Russia sighed "your a very confusing and interesting person" Canada put the notebook down and left it in that spot as he walk close to Russia looking up at him Russia look away anxious "Your too close" Canada wrap his arms around Russia hugging him Canada stand there grumpy "once again about the hugging"

Russia got Canada off him as he walk away down the hallway he exhale Russia doesn't understand why he doesn't like hugs it's just something he wasn't use to as a kid and growing up he never like anyone touching him it made him feel like their a threat if they get close Canada walk over to Russia don't want to be left behind

"..!" Russia exhale once again upset "Canada I know your mind is in a different area or whatever just no hugging or getting close to me" Canada stand there just blank face Russia then heard something it was a quiet noise he went to the kitchen it was empty their was no food he growl

"This is going to be more stressful since theirs two of us I need to start putting less food..." Russia look at Canada who was smaller then him "maybe you should be the only one eating" Canada look at himself then look at Russia giving him a dumbfounded stare Russia chuckle "don't worry about me I'm just worrying about you because uh"

Canada look away playing with his fingers Russia just shake his head "uh I didn't mean it like that I just.. let's go we need to go get more food in the bottom of the ship I'm supposed to stay here for a while but only a little bit could fit in the fridge so you know" Canada breathe in out Russia walk down the hall going to his spacesuit

spacesuit "the bottom of the ship is very cold it gave me a frost bite when I simply touch one thing" Canada walk to his spacesuit putting it on then look at Russia he pointed upwards to a tiny cabinet where is helmet was sitting

Russia look at it "oh forgot" he grab it giving it to Canada "maybe I should-" Canada drop the helmet holding a piece of fabric his hands were shaking like it look like he was starring at blood on his hands "! ! !" Russia look at Canada's expression he was scared Russia stare at the fabric that look worn out from everything

"Put that away" Canada didn't want to let go of it and even if he could he wouldn't it's a memory it's a lesson it's karma that will haunt him Canada started to freak out as he started to cry he didn't even notice the tears falling from his face Russia put his hand on the fabric "Hey Canada stay with me"

Canada jolted starring at the hand and Russia he was back but still trembling Canada look at the tears and wipe them away and let go of the fabric gripping his hands ". . ." Russia sighed "I can grab the food it's probably for the best you can just stay up here and wait for me" Canada rubbed his arm

Canada doesn't like seeing Russia leave him he doesn't know why maybe because he's scared of something might happen when Russia's gone "..." Russia put on his helmet walking away to a door that was sealed off he did a password on it as the door open Canada seen what the passcode was

Canada grip his fist very hard breathing heavily he grab his helmet and run to the door opening it and closing it he seen a second door so he open it and he look their was a latter going down he slowly went down it was very dark and he can see how cold it was from the glass on his helmet

Canada got to the bottom to only bump into Russia who carrying something heavy Canada fall on the ground looking at Russia freaking out but slowly calm down Russia was confused he didn't want to ask so he put out a hand "shouldn't be rushing around when it's pitch black down here" Canada stare at Russia's hand then grab it

Russia help Canada up then gave him a box which Canada almost fall trying to hold it Russia went to go grab another box "don't drop it" Canada whine trying to hold it he look up at the latter very mad he was about to go up but Russia went pass him "I don't want you dropping that on my head" Canada watch as Russia went up the latter with one hand like it was nothing

Canada stare at Russia at the top helpless Russia chuckle "I'm not helping I know your not helpless you can do it... if you can't carry it find a way to bring it up" Canada glance around him it was dark he can only see the light from Russia's helmet "..." Russia just walk away which Canada frown he breathe in and out trying to carry it up

Canada made it up haft way but got stuck the box wouldn't budge to go up he tried pushing it upwards no hope he sighed getting tired trying to make sure it doesn't fall on him then he felt someone grab it lifting it up it was Russia who look disappointed "haft way huh.." Canada got up laying on the ground tired his arms hurt

Russia just laugh "no muscle just bones" Canada actually thought that was a funny joke but he act jokingly mad Russia glared still having a smile on his face "and I'm carrying your box!?" Canada realized and try to take the box but Russia moved it away from his grasp "too late I'm carrying it now" they made it back to the kitchen

Russia put the frozen food in the fridge really the food is in silver bags sealed shut and namer tags on it Canada grab the food bag starring at it missing the taste of milk just having cereal in the morning he sighed Russia look over "its like your learning your emotions again" Canada put the food bag down

Russia look at him "what?" Canada stand up and went to Russia and immediately Russia back away "what are you doing?" Canada was going to try to lean on him for comfort but it seems Russia is never a fan of anything so he frown "Canada" Canada just sat down beside "..." Russia look at the fridge "what am I going to do with you" putting the sentence mostly towards Canada

Canada just sat there he doesn't feel anything he want to feel something like to know that he's still here still living but his body doesn't feel like home Russia seen Canada was heavily thinking so he stand up "Hey you hungry?" Canada snap out of his thoughts and look at Russia and slowly got up as Russia did

Russia grab the silver food bag and warm it up in the microwave Russia was bored so he just watch the food and Canada look at Russia and stayed close to him as they both watch the food get cooked it finally finished so Russia open it giving it to Canada "I'll be at my desk" Canada grab the food following Russia

As Russia does work he look beside him to see Canada eating happily he look away blushing just seeing his smile made him feel happy after a bit Russia dirty he stand up "I'm going to go clean myself" Canada was done with his food so he put it in the garbage and stayed by Russia which Russia look at Canada awkward

"I'm going to clean myself you can't... go do something else" Canada just had no expression Russia was unsure what else to say so he went to and sighed "Canada go draw something leave me alone" Canada thought he was being quiet he was confused how did he hear him

Canada walk away anxious going back to the room Russia went to the washroom Canada sat in the room trying to stop the thoughts that try to hit him with negativity so he look at the note book and grab it he draw scribbles or random things he draw his family and other things he thought was funny

Then he felt his face went red when he draw Russia he didn't mean to draw him he stare at it then heard Russia spoke so he quickly covered his note book embarrassed "was that me?" Canada closed the note book and act like nothing happened Russia just chuckle "ok just wanted to let you know you got my hat wrong"

Then he walk to his bed to lay down tired Canada open the note book and of course Russia was right he stared at it upset he lay down on his mattress staring at the ceiling couldn't sleep

5 Like The Moon Like Water

Four months and a week in space

Canada stayed up for a while he didn't know for how long so he sat up looking at Russia he look comfortable then he heard "go to sleep" Canada immediately lay back down Russia turn to face him looking down at the mattress Canada was laying on "how long have you been awake"

Canada didn't know how to answer that question he look away and covered up in the blankets Russia sighed "also why were you watching me sleep" Canada kinda tuck his head under the blankets and was hoping Russia just forgets about it and Russia did he didn't want the answer he just didn't care

Russia stand up and yawn still tired "you can stay here and I'll go have something to eat and go do some work" Canada heard Russia foot steps as the man walk away Canada later there just wishing so bad that Russia just didn't see him look at him he felt embarrassed then Canada peak out of the blankets

He was kinda mad and felt dumb but then Canada seen the darkness coming in around his eyes it was like he was going to close them he immediately stand up freaking out and run outside of the room and practically jump on Russia which Canada could have fall Russia grab him and for a split second they stare into each other's eyes

Canada never actually got to see Russia's eyes then you can see Russia's expression change he drop Canada and glared "what do you want" Canada look up at Russia scared but he didn't feel scared of Russia more of scared...

The radio went off Russia sighed and step over Canada walking towards the radio talking in Russian to the other person Canada just sat there flustered he didn't know why he rubbed his face in stress then he heard Russia "Canada" Canada look at Russia who was starring down at him "you want something to eat?" Canada nod Russia smiled "good" Canada look away he sighed Russia went to the fridge

Russia finish preparing the food he seen Canada looking tired "why couldn't you sleep?" Candy of course didn't say anything he just look nervous Russia frown "same I can't get much sleep up here... I couldn't sleep either.. you probably seen a lot" Canada never notice something but as he think about Russia's eyes he always look tired and stressed he walk over to Russia grabbing his food from him

Canada watch Russia eat Canada wasn't feeling hungry so he lean his head on the table Russia look at Canada "you should eat it's no good to waste food" Canada push the plate towards Russia which Russia push it back "its yours not mine" Canada started to tear up why does he feel different he was just feeling good not to long ago Canada he try to hold onto the tears but they left like as fast they come

Russia heard Canada crying he wasn't quiet about it Russia sighed and walk over to Canada he wasn't sure what to do he stand there for a few seconds then he frown as he grab Canada and pull him into a hug Canada hold on to Russia tight crying immediately feeling comfortable Russia didn't know what else to do with Canada he look at Canada face bunch of tears falling he wipe away the tears

"Canada stay strong okey stop crying" Canada couldn't everything hurt his lungs and his throat his eyes his head he couldn't sleep and worst the guilt is getting harder to handle Russia just pick up Canada holding on to him "I guess your tired" he chuckle Canada didn't say anything he still hold Russia as they went to the room Russia try to drop Canada on the bed but Canada wouldn't let go "Canada you need sleep and I need to go lean and work"

Canada didn't want to be left alone he tried wrapping his legs around Russia body and unfortunately made him fall the two were both on the bed and Russia sighed "why aren't you letting go" Canada blush at Russia who was on top of him he just went and cuddle Russia jolted blushing he awkwardly look at Canada who look like they calm down Russia didn't know how to get out of this situation if Canada still holding on to him

Russia sighed "you win" and lay down beside Canada embarrassed Canada fall asleep Russia look at Canada "I hate you" Canada snuggle up to Russia's neck and Russia heart started to beat he tried not to freak out so he lay there and after a bit Russia himself started to fall asleep they both are asleep comfortably in bed time passed once Canada woke up Canada look at the room it's a bit blurry from his tired vision

Canada look at his position he had his hand were still around Russia he yawn still tired he look at everything then felt where Russia's hands were his face went red like a tomato he didn't know what to do so he snuggle more in Russia's neck trying to wake him up and that work Russia woke up and quickly realized his mistake he stare at his arm that was around Canada waist and his other hand on Canadas butt

Russia awkwardly moved away and got Canada off him he sat at the edge of the bed he got up he's not going to talk about it Russia left the room as Canada sat there embarrassed and flustered he shake off the feeling and went and followed Russia to the kitchen Russia was waiting for the food and just avoiding eye contact Canada just sat down on the ground by the wall Russia sighed

"I'm sorry" Russia spoke he sounded a bit upset Canada just played with his hands fidgeting the food was done and the two ate away from each other it was awkward Canada didn't want to admit it but he liked it he didn't understand why but he misses the warmth then Canada had an idea to make it not awkward he left to go grab the little note book he had he showed it to Russia which Russia was confused

Canada ripped out a piece of paper and gave it to Russia he stare at it and seen Canada was drawing Russia thought this was childish but he started to draw he was bored in the first place then he stop looking at Canada's it wasn't that bad Russia stop Canada look at Russia's then him Russia just sighed "yours don't look that bad" Canada actually like Russia's it was a drawing of someone

Russia flip his paper "don't look at mine I'm not a fan of it" Canada didn't see what was wrong with it but he started drawing again he drew where he used it live he missed his house Russia stare at it

"Your really good at drawing backgrounds" Canada forgot Russia was there he cover it but Russia touch Canada's hands to move them away and look at the note book it had all sorts of drawings some scribbled others random but it was interesting

Russia got to the page of him he stare at it and it look like he tried to fix the hat he chuckle Canada blush embarrassed about it and how Russia immediately notice what he did was even more embarrassing Russia grab the pencil and fix it he gave it back to Canada and Canada smiled it look just like Russia then Russia smiled

Russia then look away he wasn't smiling anymore he just sighed "uh Canada" Canada look at him "..." Russia had second thoughts and shake his head "never mind it's a dumb question" Russia got up and went to his desk and started to do some paper work Canada walk over by him and sat beside him on the floor Canada lean his head on Russia's lap then fall asleep

Russia had a fade of pink went across his face he hated this feeling he never like it when his face turns warm and his stomach felt like he was on a roller coaster it actually made him feel sick

6 The Sick Space

Four months and two weeks in space

Canada stayed up once again he look at Russia who was fully asleep Canada got up and walk away he left he walk out the door and look at his suit he was feeling really bad home sick so Canada grab his stuff he got his suit and his helmet an full air tank he look at the door it had a passcode he still remember it so he used it and open the door after Canada walk through the door closed behind him he watch the other door open and then their was no gravity

Canada went and hold on to the poles that were meant to go on top of the satellite Canada hold on tight just starring at space he look at all the stars it amazed him Canada just love the place then he look at how huge earth was it made him feel home sick he sat there started to cry Canada started to tremble he started to feel his breath started to shake he try not to cry but his throat hurt he try to slow down his breathing and it work

Canada remember his brothers and his family how they used to hang out mostly it was nice to be with his brothers they bug each other and it was always funny to see each other fight Canada was dozing off in his safe place he forgot he was in space until he got push by something he quickly got back into reality freaking out looking around he couldn't see everything kept spinning then he felt someone grab him

Canada was freaking out Russia hold on to Canada tight and bringing him back to the ship once the both were inside safely Russia took off his helmet and his suit pissed "Why Were You Out Of The Ship!! Why Didn't You Tell Me!" Canada started coughing his throat hurt Russia stop himself from getting more mad he sighed and glared taking off Canada's helmet which Canada hand over his mouth when he coughed

Russia look at his air tank it was full he was confused "Canada what happened?" Canada just shake his head he was fine just he felt that his throat hurt "..." Russia sighed "Canada I didn't mean to yell at you I was just scared at first I thought you left me.." Canada took off his space suit looking at Russia eye to eye Russia look worried Canada went to Russia and lean his head on him then wrap his arms around Russia

Russia jolted but what surprised Canada was that Russia hugged him Canada then try to snuggle and Russia got him off Canada kinda knew that was going to happen Russia look away "uh I'm going to go work you can do whatever" Canada didn't really have anything to do so he went with Russia to the work thing Canada waited there in one spot by Russia he was sitting on the ground thinking

Then he realized that he can probably watch a movie if Russia has any movies because a little bit back Canada saw a T.v which he wanted to use to watch movies but then he realized seeing beside the T.v was a console he look over at Russia and nudge him Russia look down at Canada "what?" Canada grab Russias hand bringing him to the room and showing him the T.v Russia didn't got what Canada was trying to say

"You can watch movies... I don't have any French movies" Canada forgot Russia still thinks he's French Canada couldn't help but smile and kinda chuckle but he started to cough Russia look at Canada and put his hand on Canada's head "are you getting sick if you are that's bad news" Canada shake his head and pointed at his throat Russia went and touch Canada's neck which made him flinch Russia just wanted to feel if he's breathing properly or if somethings wrong

Canada moves away Russia's hand shaking his head Russia just sighed "I don't know what you mean when you point at things or shake your head you have to try to communicate better than that" Canada state blankly at Russia "..." Russia frown and was about to walk away but Canada stop him by grabbing his arm Russia look over to see Canada pointing at the console Russia just chuckle "go ahead I guess you can play it"

This is getting tougher for Canada he just want to speak but he started coughing again he doesn't understand when he coughs Canada frown pointing at the two of them and the console Russia look at Canada and touch his neck again "Canada try to cough again" Canada just wants to play video games but he doesn't know what's wrong with him then his throat felt itchy so he coughed and Russia touch Canada's chest "can you take a deep breath"

Canada took a deep breath but something hurt and he cough again Russia was now really worried "I would say you have a broken rib but somethings off it's like your sick" Canada look away thinking maybe it's from holding his breath too long then getting slam down to the floor which that could have killed him but at least he knows that he is alive right now but of course that doesn't give him the answer why his longs hurt Russia touch Canada's side going up and down "it doesn't feel like you have a broken rib and your would of probably be crying"

Canada wasn't getting worried he knew this would just go away in a couple weeks and if it doesn't he then something might of gotten more worse Canada sighed as Russia was trying to find something wrong "so you can breathe properly but you keep coughing is it hurting more in your throat or lungs" Canada pointed at his throat Russia sighed "I think we have to put a tube in your throat to see what's going on" Canada nod so the two went in the medic room Russia learned a lot about being a doctor

Russia look through the bags wondering where it is "since I was sent up here by myself I had to learn all these stuff... wait what were you at your satellite?" Canada wasn't second in command or private and he wasn't the medic as he think about it he was just there doing work Russia finally found it "ok I'm going to give you something that would make you sleepy and I'll see what's going on" Canada stare at Russia upset which Russia just sighed

"After that I'm going to see what's wrong with your lungs and that's it" Canada sighed and tried to get comfy Russia grab some straps "This is for when you move or something happens you would be tied down" Canada watch Russia put straps on his arms legs and waist this made Canada uncomfortable it made him nervous and scared Russia grab some sleepy gas and put it on Canada's face "take a deep breathe" Canada started to tear up breathing it he doesn't know why he was scared now

Canada went to sleep but he remembered that his dream was about him seeing his family he was so happy but something was off when he look at his family Canada look at all of them why did he felt someone was missing when their all there Canada woke up and he was laying on in bed he look around a bit tired and dizzy he almost forgot where he was Russia shine a light at his eyes which made Canada fall back Russia look at Canada "Canada can you hear me"

Canada was still feeling dizzy and his head hurt he can hear Russia but it sounded like he was underwater which he freaked out and look around his head was spinning and he ending up puking Russia backed away grabbed Canada striping him from what he puked on his jumpsuit Canada lean on Russia he was super confused Russia sighed "Canada you woke up too early and why your feeling like this is because the drugs are working"

Canada whimper still feeling sick Russia went to his room grabbing him one of his jumpsuit and put it on Canada it was way too big Canada kept leaning his head downwards feeling like to puke Russia sighed "Sorry Canada I wasn't sure how much I should gave you" Canada lay down his head on Russia's shoulder Russia frown "just rest"

7 Short Love Burns

Four months and three weeks in space

Canada felt like time was going slow now he was still mad that he puked on his jumpsuit and theirs no way to clean it so Russia throw it out and Canada has no extra jumpsuit so now Canada is wearing one of Russia's extra jumpsuits Canada look how big it was on him he kept tripping and slipping it was annoying Russia was doing his normal radio talks and counting paper Canada was bored hearing writing and tapping and Russia whispering in Russian

Canada yawn in boredom Russia look over to Canada sitting on the ground the baggy jumpsuit look silly on Canada it made Russia laugh a bit it wasn't a big laugh it sounded like a chuckle Canada frown looking at him Russia sighed "sorry you look ridiculous wearing my jumpsuit" Canada stand up and walk to him Russia tried not to laugh any more as he already have

"Ok ok I'll try to fix it" he grab Canada which Canada gasp coughing still until Canada seen blood in his cough he coughed again blood dark red Canada breathe and coughed again it's been a week and his coughs were mix Russia seen the blood and stop his tracts and stare at Canada's face he had some blood on the side of his mouth Russia put Canada down Russia already told what was wrong with Canada he found that Canada's lungs were bruised bad and his throat is swollen a tiny bit with bruises

Russia feels guilty starring at Canada he has some sorts of problems with injuries and mentally unstable Russia frown wiping the blood away Canada coughed again sitting down on the ground Russia usually gives Canada warm or cold towels to help him a bit to heal on his own but Russia brings him to the room then looking at Canada "so to make it fit you more better I'm going have to cut most of the fabric off and try to make it easier to move in"

Canada just look at his jumpsuit then at Russia's why was he big Russia touch Canada's side to measure him and Canada jolted

Russia look at him "hold up I can't do this when your wearing it" Canada sighed unzipping it the jumpsuit as Russia grab the jumpsuit from him and throwing the blanket over him Canada covered up and coughed Canada watch Russia cut it and sew it back together and stare at Canada "I think I'm finished" Russia throw the jumpsuit on Canada

"Put it on" Canada got it on and it was small but it was still baggy Russia burst out laughing Canada just lay back on his bed upset Russia shake his head "ok that was only first step now I'm going to see your weight" Russia got on top of Canada and it startled him so he tried to get up Russia stop him and made two white lines on Canada's waist and chest "hold up I'm trying to make sure it'll fit"

After making white lines all over the jumpsuit so Russia knows where to cut Canada had to take off the jumpsuit and after Russia did the cutting and putting away the fabric that wasn't being used and using the needle and the thread to keep things together it was finally done Canada put it on and it fit Canada look at the fabric then look at the patches Canada realized Russia didn't keep Canada's patches

Canada had some little nice Canadian things on his jumpsuit he now realized the Russian jumpsuit he's wearing only has a few things Russia notice Canada starring at it "what's wrong? Is it a bit tight?" Canada shake his head he didn't know what else to do Russia and Canada had a awkward silence before Russia spoke "well I think I'm done here I'm going to go back to what I was doing"

Canada grab Russia's sleeve and Russia look down to see Canada pointing at the T.v Russia went and set it up putting on a movie it was either romantic or comedy movies so Russia felt awkward putting on a movie he never really has someone there to watch it with him the two on the bed watching it Russia translated parts of the movie for Canada "she said that she doesn't want to live there anymore and she's moving out and he's trying to make her stay by saying that he did change and he did it for her so they can be together"

Canada didn't mind hearing Russia as he talk about the movie Canada then cough have some blood come out which hurt like hell but he's slowly trying to get used of the pain Russia look down at Canada "I know that your fine and your on medication but are you ok?" Canada nod coughing more having tears sting his eyes Russia sighed "should I put you on more medication?" Canada shake his head

Russia didn't want Canada to hurt or feel pain he frown "you sure" Canada wipe the blood away from his mouth looking at his hands shaking their was blood smudge all over it making him started to cry Canada shake his head freaking out holding himself Russia is still trying to get used of Canada and his mental health issues he's not used of having to deal with someone else's problems and at first he didn't want to but then something click to his brain or was it his heart

Russia awkwardly try to calm Canada down but it made it worst Canada push Russia away freaking out he doesn't want anything to touch him then after a bit Canada suddenly just hold his breath which Russia tap him and grab his shoulder to pull Canada into a hug Canada let out his breath as he started breathing again for Canada it was some sort of coping mechanism from trauma Russia pat Canada not sure if he should touch him

Canada just kept his hands wrap around Russia whimpering it sounded sad because he kept trying to hold his breath but he kept crying Russia look away and watch the movie talking about it and trying his best to ignore the emotions and Canada ending up calming down and now asleep Russia just lean down on the bed with Canada laying on him again it was strange to have someone else by him

Russia didn't mind to be by himself all he did was drink and watch movies over slept and work and just more drinking and play games he didn't see anything bad about that but Canada having him around Russia made him not drink anymore make him have a nice sleep and work nothing more Russia sighed grabbing Canada and sitting him on the mattress what Canada usually sleeps on and Canada whine

Russia jolted when Canada woke up and hold on to him he sighed "Canada you have your own bed I can't have you keep sleeping in mine it's childish I don't want to deal with it" Canada slowly let go and Russia set him down on the mattress and put the blanket over him after that Russia lay back on his bed tired he does not like seeing emotions it makes him feel weaker he was about to close his eyes but Canada started coughing again

Russia shot back up and looking down to Canada seeing him coughing and lay back down having blood on his hands and mouth Russia grab a cloth wiping away the blood so Canada doesn't panic when he wakes up Russia lay back down blushing he doesn't care or that's at least Russia keeps telling himself that he doesn't care about Canada

((Sorry I was hoping to post two chapters today but I got caught up trying to get my learners drivers license I'm doing bunch of reading and my test is coming soon so wish me luck and please understand hahaha))

8 Slow Flame

Five months in space

Canada woke up and this time his lungs didn't hurt but his throat felt dry he look around and seen Russia wasn't there he got up and walk to the kitchen and he wasn't there or at the radio not even the washroom Canada carried a blanket around to comfort him he kept walking back and forth thinking where is he then a door open and Canada jolted it was Russia he look tired then Russia closed the door and he was shock Canada was up

"I thought you would be still asleep" Russia said confused Canada was even more confused seeing that their was a secret door Russia sighed "that's nothing don't go through there just more work I had to deal with" Canada had a curious expression so Russia frown "Canada no" Canada look at Russia and nod so they had their usual food and Russia work on radio Canada always thought it was boring here nothing really happens

Canada then thought that he's just going to go play games on the console and that's what he did using comfort by the blanket he can be by himself for a bit Canada look at the games and he started to play a game just quest and knights, villagers, dragons, it was strange for Canada playing games that he doesn't play that much he kept fooling around destroying things and then he got bored laying on the bed

Russia came in and was about to yawn until he seen Canada laying on his bed and playing games Russia stare at the screen with the village on fire he frown "having fun?" He said a bit grumpy Canada look over at Russia bored "..." Russia scooted Canada to the side making more room on the bed as he grab the controller and got off the game to another game Canada watch Russia play whatever he was playing

Canada put his head and Russia's lap watching in amazement Russia face was red just paying attention to the game then he started

getting tired so he put on a movie and was about to lay down but Canada was making it harder to move he poke at Canada "wake up" Canada push his hand away holding it and Russia sighed "uh Canada I want to sleep go on your own bed" Canada barely heard what he said being sleepy and tired

Russia grab Canada but jolted when Canada cuddle him Russia's face was red his heart was beating fast he just look away and slowly and gently put him down on his bed and Russia lay down on his own bed then blush because their still holding hands as they fall asleep Russia had a dream he was home and it was winter their was so much snow and he saw Canada happy holding his hand as their skating then Canada got close to his face too close as their lips almost touch

Russia woke up breathing heavily his heart beating fast as he was sweating having a red face he hit his face mad at himself and what Russia didn't notice was that he woke up Canada so Canada seen that no context "..?" Russia felt a gazed so he look over his shoulder to see Canada starring at him Russia look away immediately embarrassed "I uh had a bad dream... and.. I should go work"

Russia was about to leave but Canada grab his hand and it startled Russia he stop in his pace and stare at Canada who look at him and he didn't say anything of course it was his face expression that looked worried Russia shake his head "you don't have to worry about the dream it was nothing" Russia said letting go of Canada's hand and going to the radio as Canada went and grab his blanket and hold it tight then realized he should do something

Canada went to that secret door and open a little led where a passcode was Canada remember the code and it open and met eyes with an hallway he walk down it as the door closed behind him Canada walk down looking at rooms each room was computers and a little ways down was a door that said Gym so he open it and it was a workout Gym Canada walk inside and he actually remembered on his ship/satellite their he had a workout gym or a place to do yoga when your finish doing everything

Canada look at himself and covers himself up with the blanket he started lifting up weights not big just ones that he can use as

Canada think to himself when was the last time he work out Canada laughed as he remembered it was when he was home with his brothers than another memory covered it and he remembered his crew Russia open the door and Canada drop the weight on his foot he covered his mouth in pain as he move his foot

Russia seen that and glared "what did I say about coming h- here..." Russia look at Canada he was sitting on the ground not making a noise as tears go down his face Russia didn't realize now that he didn't say ow or anything so he went over and grab Canada upset of course "you got to be more careful why is it me always have to take care of you" Canada had his eyes closed shut holding his foot as Russia went to the medical room and grab something cold and wrap it on his foot with bandages

Russia wipe away the tears from Canada's face "it's taken care of" Canada grab Russia's hand and let it stay on his face as he lean on it Russia sighed "you always want attention do you~" Canada face went red as he look up to Russia's eyes Russia actually loved Canada's eyes he stare feeling a bit calm mix with happy Canada seen Russia's expression change and his face went more red slowly stand up still starring at him until he fall from his foot being in pain and that ruined the moment Russia got back into reality and help Canada up "did you forget your hurt" he chuckled and Canada look away blushing

Canada got brought back in to the room and Russia look at the movies then heard the radio going off so he put a random movie in and went to go check Canada sat there watching the movie as it's in Russian he did not understand one bit he just sat there confused as two people were moving away on a train talking to each other Canada got bored and Russia came back seeing Canada looking at him Russia then realized "oh yeah your French" Canada completely regret joking about that

Russia look through the movies "uh what type of movies you like?" Canada think he actually never got asked that yet he got up and Russia's started to name out them "Action, Fantasy, Emotional, True stories?, R- Romance... uh Comedy—" Canada blush looking away smiling that he stuttered at romance that was cute then Russia look at him "s- so what?" Canada look at him still blushing and Russia look away "Comedy?" Canada shake his head knowing that he won't get some jokes Russia look at the movies "action?"

Canada shake his head so Russia named more "Fantasy or Emotional?" Canada honestly doesn't want to see any of those Russia frown "we should watch True stories their good" Canada look away wanting to laugh because he didn't get to choose he thought about it and now he wants to watch True stories so that's what they did the movie started and it was nice but scary they watch a paranormal movie and now Canada he's in the blankets as Russia hold him

After the movie Canada didn't want to sleep on his mattress so he pretend to sleep on Russia's bed and Russia poke at him "your not sleeping on my bed you got your own bed" Canada push his hand away staying on the bed Russia sighed and got on Canada's mattress to sleep Canada look down and he felt uncomfortable sleeping by himself so he went down on his mattress Russia rolled facing away from him mad "you take my bed and now you want the mattress" Canada blush as he got in between Russia's arms to cuddle and that's when Russia blush that he just wanted him

9 Fear Of What?

Four months and two weeks

Canada started catching more feelings for Russia after they keep cuddling and sometimes they work out together and Canada try to show him some yoga but all they do is laugh when they try after a bit they went to go eat and Canada sat by the window starring at the stars and the colours so much colours of galaxies Canada was always amazed by space Russia stare at Canada he didn't understand why Canada like looking in to outer space

Russia just look down at the floor thinking he never like looking at the stars or anything it made him feel uneasy and uncomfortable like he was isolated from reality he sighed as he lean his head down on the table Canada look over to see how Russia looked sad or upset he went over to him "..." Russia was stuck in his thoughts so Canada went beside to his face and smiled and Russia look at him their face were so close

Russia back up and fall off his chair face all red looking up at Canada who look worried but chuckle Russia look away feeling his heart beating and his stomach felt funny Russia rubbed his face feeling how warm it was "Canada don't do that again y- you scared me" Canada chuckle once again then put out his hand to help him up Russia look at his hand and got up himself "I don't need help" and Russia went and walk off he went to the radio

So Canada just went and chill by him sitting on the floor and sleep Russia finished writing and look at Canada he notice that Canada been sleeping more often he used to just stay up Canada was sitting there in his own head he felt like working out he stare at the door that look like it was part of the wall he never notice that Canada poke Russia as Russia look down and Canada pointed at the door

Russia nod "sure" they both got up and left the main room to go to the gym room the little work out place Russia started lifting up weights bored as Canada watch in amazement Canada mostly just did push ups and set ups before grabbing weights he sighed wishing he was a bit strong as he look over at Russia as he thought about strength then Russia look over at him and Canada immediately look away embarrassed he look at the ground thinking about something else Russia chuckle

Canada stop and drank some water and Russia spoke "are you getting tired?" Canada shake his head taking a break Russia sat down beside him "well I'm getting tired" he said along with a sigh Canada lean on Russia "..." Canada felt his muscle aching Russia gently got Canada off him "well I'm going to clean myself up" and walk away Canada got up and his foot ache after what happened it still tiny bit hurts

A bit time later Russia was cleaning himself with a cloth thinking Canada is getting attach to him and he still doesn't know what's going on outside of the space ship he frowns he had a talk with the guy on the radio and was talking about how Ukraine is started to get involved in something with the America but can't speak to much about it just in case

Russia shake his head and got out and changed in the room as Canada was laying on the ground outside of the room starring at the window looking at the starts and the Milky Way he loved the colours then Russia came out of the room "why are you always on the ground you know they're chairs and places to sit for a reason?" Canada just stuck out his tongue Russia glared "why me" he sighed to himself the radio went off again so Russia went to it and spoke "что это сейчас?(what is it now?)"

The guy on the radio didn't have a name he was just on the radio from the space station to just talk once in a while just to check up and the two which only between them they know they have Canada "Привет, рад тебе слышать(Hi glad to hear from you)" he sounded cheerful Russia just sat down on the chair "позвольте мне угадать, отправив мне больше кодов(let me guess by sending me more codes)" he started hearing clicking like a computer keyboard then switch to a pen Russia listen to them closely writing it down

Then looking at the dots and lines he counted them reading it he thought that took so long "Ukraine and America know something is off their watching Canada's updates/data back months ago when Canada was back at his own ship/satellite" Russia read in his mind as he stare at it and sighed then he spoke "что ты хочешь, чтобы я сделал?(What do you want me to do?)" Before the radio turned off by hearing bunch of static noises so Russia look at the paper "of course I get stuck here with problems that's what they all want right? Can't believe this—" Russia stop in mid sentence to feel someone hug him he look over to see Canada arms wrap around him

Russia realized he said that in English so Canada understand "don't worry about me worry about yourself I'm fine" Canada just gave him a stare and that stare change everything his eyes had a nice glow from the sun as the room got bright from the sun shining through the window and can kinda feel the warmth and Canada still had his arms around Russia they were like that for a bit until Russia just look away blushing scratching the back of his neck "why don't you say anything it'll make things less awkward" that there made Canada smile and laugh

Russia gently move away from Canada "glad you always have a smile not like when I first seen you" Canada barely remember that but Russia remember the way Canada would always just get scared so easily and just never stop hugging or grabbing him it was annoying at first but he has to say now it actually comforting but still annoys him he doesn't speak "Canada?" Russia spoke softly "I know you speak English.. I know... and you still laugh... can you try to speak now?"

It was silent for a bit then Canada open his mouth almost going to try to say something until something hit the ship/satellite Canada fall to the ground and Russia steady himself as the alarm went off it was loud and the lights flicker along with other noises Canada curl up into a ball as he hold his head not wanting to hear those sounds and anything he was freaking out heavily breathing practically gasping for air and Russia seen his state

Russia grab Canada and went to the secret door and open it going into the first room with computers seeing the problem as Canada black out everything after Russia fixed the problem and went back to Canada in the room on his bed Russia poke him then said

"Canada?" After he said that Canada got up fast and startled him Russia look at Canada as he look around fast and breathing heavily Russia grab Canada face "your okay... your okay it was nothing I already fix it" Russia said calmly trying to calm him down

Canada had a few tears going down his face so Russia gently wipe them away "just rest for tomorrow I got to go do some radio work" Russia was going to leave but Canada grab on to him scared his grip was tight and he felt Canada shaking Russia stop and grab him and walk out of the room and to his desk Russia sat down with Canada on his lap as he started to write down data Canada just had tears going down his face as he stayed holding Russia tight still shaking up as to what happened that freak him out

Russia just kept rubbing Canada's back and patting Canada on the head "shhh they ship is okay your okay just sleep now" and Canada slowly close his eyes and Russia started to sing a soothing song to him as he work on writing stuff down Canada finally fallen asleep after twenty minutes Russia look at the papers then stare at the coding paper thinking to himself "why does Ukraine always have to be involved"

10 I Really Need A Hug

Four months and four weeks

Canada was already up before Russia this time he went and had breakfast and his favourite time is laying by the window he thought about Russia he remembered him being mad sometimes and other times he joke a bit Russia is confusing Canada sat up and he felt anxious in his stomach when he touch his throat and felt his breathing and try to say hi but it was very very quiet and it hurt his throat felt itchy and his eyes water up he started coughing hating himself for trying he breath in and out wanting to try again he was about to until Russia walk in Russia look at him and Canada blush embarrassed Russia just look away to the kitchen "you already ate?" He asked not even knowing what was going on Canada nod Russia just grab something then look at the fridge "it's almost empty I'll say one day before it's empty then we'll have to go get a box in the bottom of the ship" Canada hated it down there it's dark and cold and it's hard carrying stuff up Russia laugh at Canada's expression thinking about last time "don't worry you build strength I'm pretty sure you'll make it all the way up"

Canada lay back down and sighed Russia frown "what was the coughing all about?" Canada couldn't really say so he showed Russia instead he try to say hi once again but he coughed immediately Russia realized he didn't really know what to say but he was surprised then he had an idea "how about you keep trying everyday to say one word and I keep giving you painkillers so it doesn't hurt so much?" Canada shake his head glaring at Russia he thought to himself it'll just be a waste of Medicine and trying everyday sounds painful Russia stop his thinking "I know you might be thinking it's a waste of time or wasting pills but I want to try and help you"

Canada frown overthinking more what if they need it in the future like something goes wrong and- Russia hug Canada and this time

Canada was in shock even more surprised "You help me I want to help you..." Russia said in a whispered Canada was confused what that meant but he just nod so that day Canada try to at least say hi even if it hurt and just ending up coughing he's willing to make himself speak again

Canada bit his lip out of frustration he could only speak quietly but Russia can't hear him it feels useless he was laying on the floor upset he had some painkillers to help a tiny bit Russia was beside the radio watching Canada struggle "you should stop and try tomorrow just relax for now" Canada nod as Russia stand up "hey I know something that would help you relax stand up" Canada look up at Russia hesitant but he got up off the ground Russia grab Canada's hands and stare down at him Canada look up to him blushing

Russia stare away blushing "want to dance?" Canada felt Russia's warm hands and nod Russia took the step to the side and Canada blush as it was his turn to take a step but he doesn't know how to slow dance Russia look at Canada and chuckle "you don't know what your doing do you?" Canada felt his face went red as a tomato as Russia put his arm around Canada waist as he led the way "just watch how I move and try to follow it" Canada watch as Russia kept doing the same pattern with his steps so Canada did the same Russia smiled "your seeing the pattern? Yes?" Canada nod

Russia started changing it up instead of them going back and forth Russia made them go in a circle Canada kept accidentally tripping himself of stepping on Russia's foot which made Russia laugh seeing Canada stumble "relax take your time you don't have to keep up" Canada after a while started to make it and their both slow dancing Canada smiled so Russia lift up Canada's chin "now try to stare at me and not the ground" Canada felt like he couldn't breathe just almost stumbling around

Russia chuckle "your getting better" Canada felt his hands getting sweaty so he let go of Russia embarrassed wiping his hands looking away blushing it was getting way to warm Russia look at Canada "at least you tried right?" Canada shook his head and Russia went and hug him again Canada gasp he was hot "that was fun" Canada wrap his arms around Russia seeing the sun in the background lighting up the room and feeling the warmth Canada spoke very quietly "R-Russia"

What's happening down on earth right now

Ukraine yawn as the alarm went off he whack it off his desk tired of hearing that stupid beeping noise Ukraine got up early in the morning he took a shower and got ready he had a meeting with America today he went and grab his papers and a bag of clothes Ukraine walk out of his room looking at pictures of him and Canada hanging out through the summers or winters Ukraine walk out of his house and start up his car to go to the airport after sleeping for hours and the plane finally stop in America or for short USA or just US he rather call him America and talking about America he shouted at Ukraine "UKRAINE!! Nice to see you"

Ukraine didn't want to talk to America he sighed "nice to see you too America" he said kind of a downer America laughed "alright let's go to my house and you can explain everything" Ukraine and America went to his house and America watch as Ukraine started taking papers out of his bag "you've been working for a bit can I-" "no" Ukraine response was America just frown "I'm trying to help too your the one who came to me and asks for a favour" Ukraine sighed "yeah because I know you had a feeling about this too right? Canada is still alive out there and we need to bring him home he probably has trauma and blaming himself right now"

America nod getting serious "ok so what are you saying" Ukraine put papers on the wall of data him and America caught up with "ok the starting make since but the ending doesn't also his suit is still is in good shape like his data just randomly slowly goes away as the other astronauts completely stop that doesn't mean Canada is dead but it means he can be somewhere safe" America listen to Ukraine as he talk about what they know over an hour "so we could find him if we know where all of the satellites were at this timeline and see where he's at now"

Ukraine smiled "yes then once we find him we have to go up there and get him we can't let him wait any longer he's probably scared and terrified" America lean back "I hope he's okay and I'm very upset if I found out who has him Ukraine lay down on the couch looking at the wall "that was harder then expected to explain" America look at the wall "I hope your right about all this and your not just giving me hope to find out in the end-" "of course I'm right! I Know He's Alive!" Ukraine shouted upset looking away

"If I wasn't I wouldn't know what to do he's always been there for me and I want to always be there for him and help him" America shook his head "yeah I know you guys been good friends" Ukraine sighed "friends..." Ukraine look at a picture of him and Canada snowboarding together he frown thinking about that day he ask Canada out but Canada didn't feel the same with him only saw Ukraine as a friend and nothing more Ukraine thought he ruined the friendship but Canada still hang out with him as friends and Ukraine just got over it as long he's still by Canada's side and Canadas by him "hey America can I ask you something"

America look at Ukraine holding a picture "uh what is it?" Ukraine put the picture away "when Canada comes back can he stay with me for a while I feel like he'll feel more comfortable with me than you guys no offence since we been friends and I want to help him with his mental health" America thought that was a good idea Canada and his best friend staying together for his health "yeah of course for Canada but me and my family have to see him first before he goes with you okey"

Ukraine nod "yeah I got mental health places that can help him too if you don't mind me bringing him there" America smiled "as long it helps Canada he's important" Ukraine smiled back "yeah that's nice thanks now I can't wait to see him again" America thought about amazing times "yeah that makes me happy" Ukraine sighed looking at the papers "I can't keep going back and forth I brought some clothes can I stay here" America smiled "of course just stay in Canada's spare room" Ukraine look at America strange "Canada's spare room?" America realized what it sounds like "well Canada has his own house so he left some of his stuff in that room so whenever he comes over he has his own room and not just a random guest room"

Ukraine laugh "Canada's smart for doing that" America look away chuckling "well that was my idea in the first place but credit Canada he's actually smart" Ukraine laugh "ok well I'm going in to his room" America shook his head and once Ukraine went in Canada's room his room smell sweet Ukraine close the door behind him "wow Canada has a lot of teddy bears" he look at Canada's clothes in the closet as he started looking at the hoodies and seen Canada's favourite hoodie he grab it gently and hold it with a sigh as he lay on the bed "Where are you Canada I hope your safe and okay"

11 Lost Time

Five months and one week in space

Russia finished working out and going out of the of the room down the hall out of the secret door as Canada was still sleeping Russia sighed and went over to Canada "hey wake up" Canada just hummed as he faced away from Russia with the blankets over his face Russia laugh "it's time to eat I know it's been hard for you to eat because of trying to talk and it's getting easier to hear you" Canada knew Russia still couldn't hear him because all he keeps getting in response from Russia is huh

So Canada sighed and got out of the blankets and stare face to face to Russia "lies" he said in a very quiet whisper and of course Russia said "huh?" Canada frown Russia realized and look away embarrassed "heh I guess you got me I still can't hear you" Canada lower his head sad after a couple weeks of practicing it still feels like he's not going anywhere with this and a couple times he tried to quit but Russia cheer him up and made him feel better

Russia lift up Canada chin so he can look at him Canada blush all the time and every time he see's Russia's eyes and Russia smirk "why every time you stare at me your face gets red I started to notice it" Canada realized and his red face as it felt so warm he look away thinking why does it have to show and why Russia has to point it out Russia laugh "it's adorable" the silence happened as the two started blushing and Russia spoke fast "I Didn't Mean It! I Meant It I-" he cut himself off flustered not knowing how to speak words

Canada laugh awkwardly then started coughing because the pain struck hit his throat Russia look at him worried "are you okay" Canada smiled weakly "yeah" he tried saying but coughed again Canada whined as the pain right now made him remember about the pain in his lungs and throat weeks ago Russia grab Canada's hand to help him out of bed and go to the kitchen that's where they sat down together and ate food Canada didn't eat that much he only

took a few bites

Russia frown "could you take a few more bites?" He sounded worried maybe because Canada hasn't been eating that much after trying to speak "at least two more bites?" Russia said trying to encourage Canada and so Canada felt Russia getting worried or sad he took more than two bites and left his plate to that he went to drink some water to wash away that dry taste away he thought to himself maybe he's doing something wrong that's why his throat is sore maybe he isn't trying to speak loud enough

Canada sighed as he left the room going to go work out in the gym he did the passcode and the door open and closed behind him he kept walking but a sudden noise catches his attention Canada walk to one of the computer room and seen their were wires and a laptop and a computer it's a tiny room barely space for anything and just one chair Canada stare at the sad room and was about to walk out but it was that noise again he turn to the laptop and click one button and it turned on and showing a loading screen

Canada and his curious mind click another button to see it say something in Russian obviously saying Username and Password so Canada type his and it open he smiled In surprised and he look at the laptop and realized the battery was about to die that's why it's alerting a random noise because it wasn't plugged in or connected to any wire just nothing so Canada frown and look around at his data on the laptop and look documents he wasn't really looking for anything just forgot how it look

Canada then heard another beep it sounded calm and it was a message he click on it and it was Leaf one of his crew mates Canada froze in time starring at the message in shock wondering how is it there he didn't notice tears going down his face he click on the message and it was sent months ago he started to silently cry to see that Leaf sent him pictures and a video he look at the pictures first as he wipe away tears

then he click on the black screen video and it was quiet for a bit then Leaf grab the camera "oh there it went I accidentally sat it down hahaha"

Canada started to wipe away more tears going down his cheeks hearing Leaf's laugh then Leaf showed his room at the station "okay well I got to say goodbye to my room before I go to space wow this is insane" he said talking to the camera then walking out of the empty room carrying his bags to the ship he sat down his bags tired out then grab his camera "that was heavier than I thought I thought it was going to be light for some reason"

Leaf kept the camera in hidden so it look like he was just talking to himself "this is amazing I finally could finish my life goal and the best part of it is that I get to meet students that were in the same class as me I—" Leaf was cut off to someone talking to him "how are you feeling? About this all?" Canada realized that's his voice it's been a while since he heard his own voice except the voice in his head "uh this been my dream as a kid my whole life but it came too soon" Leaf spoke

Then Leaf seen one of his crew mates so the camera zoom in on them as the captain joked "hopefully we don't die up there" Leaf whine then the camera was covered up and all you could hear was a bit muffled and Canada frown knowing this was the part they were hugging "it's going to be all fine you can trust us to keep each other safe right?" Leaf awkwardly smiled "yeah" as Canada heard himself laugh in the video he paused the video for a second to cry hearing himself say that made him feel lots of emotions

Canada took a breath or two then press play and watch himself say "ok see you in the ship" Leaf smiled "I like that guy he's nice we should become friends wait holy this would be the best year in space chilling with him talking about life I can't wait" Leaf said to the camera then after a bit the camera skip to see Leaf on his bed having a needle and a thread holding the blanket he gave to Canada "well after time I thought about giving this to Canada not now but maybe in the future I heard his Birthday is coming up soon"

Canada frown to hear about his birthday and leaf went and grab the Camera "this is what I got so far it looks small right now but I just need to connect it to more pieces of fabric" Canada smiled looking at the laptop "I miss you" Leaf laugh before he quickly covered up the petal blanket fast to hear the door open and heard "what are you doing weirdo" Canada heard himself joke in the video and Leaf look around the room awkwardly as he slowly grab the camera and ended that shot

Then another piece of a clip started and Leaf was still fixing the blanket "Canada is going to like this and if not then he can't say no to it also I'm making these videos so I can look back at it in the future and laugh at my dumb self for doing these videos" then the next clip showed after it being a black screen for a bit "this is getting harder to hide the blanket since Canada is always looking for something that he lost also he's staying in our room more"

The next clip was strange he wasn't in the room he was hiding in a closet or something "my crew mates keep wondering why I walk around with my camera and I can't tell them now I want to surprise them" Canada paused the video and looking at it and it's an hour then Canada wanted to know how did it send he went to the ending of the video to see random bright lights and the camera spinning around before it turned into random colours then static up before cutting off

Canada look what happened before and the camera was sitting at the table at his birthday party their having cake he skip it a little more to see the lights flashing and the alarming sound happened he skip it more to see Leaf push Canada in the closet before an explosion happened the camera got suck out of the ship and that's when it started to catch on fire then breaking Canada sat there quiet as the the laptop screen turn black Canada remember Leaf telling him something about the video about his birthday sending to him after it turns off or something the laptop turn off showing a low battery sign
"Canada?!" As Canada look over by the door it was Russia who was starring at him and Canada had tears going down his face he didn't even realize he was crying

((Second part I'll post on Tuesday or so))

12 No More Silence

Five months and one week and one day in space

"Canada?!" Russia said as Canada look at Russia their was nothing but silence just like how space was except Canada started to hear ringing he couldn't see straight and he felt sick in his stomach just remembering about everything his brain was killing him giving him a headache Canada didn't notice their in a different room and Russia was sitting beside him "Canada?! Canada give me a sign your still here" Canada didn't know how to respond was he stuck somewhere he didn't think so he was beside Russia even though he couldn't feel his body or anything

Russia tap Canada and shake him "Canada!! Canada?!" He freaked out starring at Canada who kept a blank face and didn't stare at anything just wasn't there and Canada didn't know what was going on before he know it he lay back looking at the ceiling then everything turn black he kept hearing voices before he gasp as he woke up Russia was sleeping and holding on to Canada so Canada move his arms and got up and yawn holding his head as it kept feeling like he was on a coaster ride

Russia move his hand to immediately get up and see Canada out of bed "Canada are you okay?" Canada turn to him "my head hurts" and their was silents before Russia stutter "Y- You W- What!?" Canada rub his head "my what?" Russia stand up "You Speak!!" Sounding so surprised and that's when Canada stop what he was doing and look at Russia "you can hear me?" Russia was confused but grab him and hug him "YES!!" And started bouncing around in circles of joy holding Canada in his hands

Canada felt squished and sick from spinning "H- Hold Up! Just Let Me Sit Down For a- A Second!" Russia accidentally drop Canada "wait I thought you speak French" Canada whine at the pain of his body hit the ground "Wait Russia Shhhh For A Second!" Russia didn't say anything so Canada rub his head still having a headache "I know you have lots of ow!.. of questions but save it for later"

Canada throat started to hurt again "my throat is hur- a- ow! To hurt and I'm having a bad headache" then right after Canada said that he puked

Russia grab Canada and rushed him to the medical room and grab some medicine and gave it to Canada "one is for the throat and one is for your head" Canada took them both feeling sick because the headache Russia sat Canada by the radio as he went to go clean the puke Canada sat at the radio then heard people talking mostly in Russian or some other languages it was calming for some reason Canada lay there on the floor looking up at the ceiling

He stretch out his arms then reach his arm up to the ceiling wanting to touch it he was bored and look at his hands Canada forgetting all about little details in things Canada got comfortable on the ground he curled up and and fall asleep having a daydream about the grass that was behind his house the field and flowers he missed home then he look around as certain stuff didn't make since he woke up blinking a bit he was on Russia's bed and their both sleeping well Russia is still asleep

Canada only did a few movements to get comfortable and to cuddle in the blankets tired stealing some of Russia's blanket so Russia woke up and got up yawning and Canada sighed "just stay in bed for a bit longer" Russia rubbed his eyes still trying to wake up then realized "You Speak!" Canada hid in the blankets "no" Russia grab the blanket and Canada felt the cold air and curl up more

"It's not surprising just let me sleep for a couple hours or so" Russia grab Canada "Why! Say Something Else" Canada lean on Russia "your warm" Russia blush looking away "not that.. tell me about yourself" Canada put his head on Russia's thigh grabbing the blanket comfortable "what should I talk about first?" Russia shrug "I don't know" Canada yawn "you gotta have something in mind" Russia thought then awkwardly asked "you remember the first time we met" Canada frown "no I totally don't remember" saying sarcastically then Russia look away looking outside the window

"I wanted to say I'm sorry I don't think I ever said sorry" Canada look up at Russia "anything else?" Russia shrug "How does the food taste?" Canada laugh "well it's not too bad I always enjoy it" Russia lay back getting comfortable "I've noticed you like looking outside the window why?" Canada got up and lay beside Russia giving him some of the blanket "I was always interested in space seeing things now that I didn't get to see before is amazing I love the colours but it makes me homesick... I want to go home"

Russia sighed "home? What are you going to do when you go home" Canada started to feel sad "I want to see my family and hangout with them like we used too I want to see my brothers joke around at each other's at the gym or when we're walking around or at a restaurant just fooling around I want that again" Russia thought about his siblings "when I get home I'll probably just stay at my house for a while before I go see my family"

Canada nod "yeah after my family I want to go see other people like friends" Russia sat up "who are your friends?" Canada thought a bit "theirs Mexico and Ukraine, Japan and Sweden mostly Ukraine and Mexico" Russia got out of bed "oh.." Canada look at Russia "who do you hang out with?" Russia wipe away some dust on him "China and sometimes Germany... I mostly just hang out with my siblings" Canada understand "yeah... I didn't realize how much I want to go home until now talking about home"

Canada sighed "can we talk about something different" Russia nod "uh yeah how about me.. what do you think about me" Canada didn't say anything so Russia look at him "Canada" he asked again Canada face was red as his thoughts said to tell him but he shake his head "Russia I very much.. I... Your special to me.." Russia blush "special?" He let the word echo in his head liking the sound of it then heard Canada said "so want to go eat?" Russia nod as they both went in the kitchen Russia finished making the food and putting it on a plate giving it to Canada they both ate awkwardly together

Canada kept overthinking about the question Russia ask him he thought that he came off weird or strange saying special or he should of pick a different word to describe him Canada stop eating and look away at the window trying to think then he thought he should of called him something from space like a star a galaxy's he's mad he had that chance to say that but he missed it Russia look at Canada he seems off

"What's wrong Canada" he asked and Canada didn't even notice Russia's accent has that always been there now his mind is at its limit "Huh" Canada gave a look at Russia which Russia didn't know what that meant "what are you thinking about?" Canada shake his head "I don't know I just.. When I said special was it weird or—" "no I like the word special" Canada blush "ok good" Canada look away "I.. I..." Russia laugh which was the first

"Canada it's okey I don't mind it" Canada stand up and grab Russia's hand "I have a good idea" Russia look at him questioning before getting pulled by the short country along by the the hall then Canada grab his spacesuit and Russia look at him "Canada...?" And Canada look at him "it's only for a bit" Russia scratch the back of his neck anxious "that doesn't sound like a good idea" Canada grab his helmet "just relax" Russia shake his head "I'm not a scaredy-cat I don't like the idea you going out there" Canada chuckle "because the first time? Don't worry I have you by my side right?"

Russia kept getting more flustered "y- yeah" forgetting all about outer space Canada watches as Russia put on his spacesuit then put on his helmet Canada stare at Russia then Russia laugh "what?" Canada smiled "nothing" as he was about to walk to the passcode to open the door Russia stop him and wrap a rope around Canada's waist makings it like a belt and making sure it's tight "because of last time don't you forget" Canada look down at his waist "t- thanks" as they both left out of the main door where no gravity happened and they started to float

Canada look at all the stars and galaxies and the big earth Russia grab Canada's hand and pulled him up to sit on the ship as Russia lay down looking up "so why are we out here it seems dangerous" Canada sighed "it seems better out here then being cramp up in a tiny area" Russia frown "out here?" He look at the starts feeling his stomach turn "n- no" Russia spoke Canada was confused "no?" Russia hold Canada's hand tighter "I... why do you like space again?"

Canada paused thinking before he said something "Hah uh the stars and galaxies seeing the colours.. just seeing how far and huge everything is" Russia smiled "why do you make space sound nice" Canada laugh "I don't know what are you thinking about space"

Russia awkwardly laugh "dying here" their was silence then Russia sighed "at least laugh at my jokes" Canada was looking away he looks sad "Russia I have a question..." Russia pulled Canada close to him so he was holding the smaller gently "yeah what is it" he said softly and Canada asked "what were you doing before I was here"

Russia thought about it he didn't want to tell him the truth so he said "nothing" Canada wrap his arms around him and hold him it felt nice then random music was heard from Canada helmet so Russia look down to see what Canada radio was on and Canada just press down a button on Russia's spacesuit "you want to listen" Russia listen to the music and Canada spoke "its treehouse by Alex G" Russia blush he like the song it was soft and different Russia started to get tired as they both started to go back in the ship and straight to the room and sleep

13 Bundle Up

Down on Earth

Ukraine stare at the wall of random papers of data and everything they know and they finally know they contact all of the satellites and people said no and what was strange when they contact Russia space station they said no but they wouldn't let them speak to Russia Ukraine started to feel suspicious because the person that said no something was up they talk to much Ukraine look at America "Russia's in space do you think he has Canada?" America stare at the wall

"But that doesn't make since how would Canada be able to make it that far—" "it shows that he's basically still alive also they didn't answer like Russia himself didn't answer ain't that kind of weird what is he doing up there to keep him busy" America thought about Russia "we should still look for any clues of other signs before pointing fingers" Ukraine frown "you don't get it do you America it's Russia we're talking about we have to try again to contact him"

In space Russia's spaceship/satellite five months and three weeks

Canada was lifting a weight up as Russia was support there making sure it doesn't fall on Canadas chest and hurt him "do ten more you got this" Canada was breathing in and out lifting it up and down kinda struggling "I- It's too h- heavy lifting I- it up" Russia laugh "come on five more" Canada whine as he lift it up and lower it down until he cant pull it up freaking out "R- Russia— Russia!" And Russia watch for a little bit "try harder" he joked before Canada let his strength slowly go away gasping trying to push it upwards

So Russia grab it and put it back on the stand and stare down at Canada who was exhausted really breathing from freaking out and thought that Russia was going to let him die "you big meany" he managed to say looking up at Russia mad "I could of d- died" Russia laugh "but I saved you like always" he said softly with a cheeky smile Canada look away more mad and maybe blushing "pfft go away now your making me more mad"

Russia lean down and just grab Canada face "is that why your red" as he said looking at Canada's getting kinda close Canada push his face away "y- yeah!" Canada sighed getting up and coughed when he felt his throat had a pinching feeling "ow..." Russia changed his emotion to worried "how are you?" He asked wondering why Canada throat keeps hurting "maybe you should—" "I'm f- fine it's just a cough I accidentally breathe in my saliva heh" he lied

Russia breath out "okey whatever you say and Canada" the two look at each other Canada just stare at Russia's purple eyes "huh?" Russia hug Canada out of the blue and Canada jolted from the grasp then stop tensing up and melted in to the hug it seem ever since Canada started to get closer and closer to Russia that Russia starting to slowly warm up to him and it's getting way closer and farther than what the two think

After the hug the two went and changed clothes and clean up and of course they didn't change together they were in different rooms and Canada first thought when he was changing was wondering what Russia look like under his clothes he didn't mean to think about that his mind just thought about that he immediately hate himself for thinking about that he finished and walk out to see Russia laying on the floor looking at the ceiling that was the first

Canada look at him "w- what you doing?" Russia just look over at him "I'm wondering why are you always on the ground looking up at the ceiling" Canada chuckle and went and sat and lay beside him they both stare at the ceiling feeling calm and closed his eyes Russia look over at Canada blushing and move a bit closer Canada notice and he blush still having his eyes closed before saying "do you know why I lay down on the ground?"

Russia moved a bit away embarrassed "why?" Canada smile and lay on his side looking at Russia eye to eye "because it comfortable and makes me feel safe" Russia felt so hot inside his body he moved close to Canada's face and Canada didn't make any motion of moving away and Russia was about to kiss Canada but he retreated and got up looking down the hall

"Uh well I'm going back to the gym" Canada watch Russia got up and was about to walk away "wait want me to come?" Russia laugh smiling and shaking his head "you don't need me all the time right? I'll see you after I'm done" and left Canada stare at the hall unhappy and whispered "it's not me I asked about I wanted to know if he wanted me..." Canada sighed as he sat there by himself "what was up with him"

Canada face went red and he felt fuzzy inside "that silly smile of his" he chuckle to himself holding his face thinking about how Russia face got very close to him Canada couldn't stop smiling he lay back down and stare at the ceiling as the thought drift away and sleep mean while Russia in the gym was sitting there on the ground in the corner holding his face "fuck what was I thinking" he growl to himself mad

"That was so fucking stupid why did I do that.. now he's going to think I'm weird and hate me!" Russia eyes were watering up he breathe in and out "I hate this why did I have to be dumb and try to do that" Russia wipe away some tears upset "I didn't tell him yet and it's been bothering me" Russia thought how he felt when Canada was there for the first time "ugh I messed up why did I act like that" Russia sighed "why am I here"

Canada woke up to hear something at the radio it sounded familiar he went to the radio and sat at the desk looking around for Russia that wasn't seen in a while Canada stare back at the radio and turn it up to hear his brother America "R- Russia you there? I couldn't reach you before but we have to talk about something important.." Canada started to feel happy then America spoke again "Russia I know your there I wanted to talk about Canada!" When Canada heard his name it echo like a gun shot

Canada grab the radio and spoke "A- America?!" Their was silence then America freak out "Canada?! H- Hi!! Uh Wait Oh My God I Miss You!!! Where's Russia... am I on the right radio..? Yeah where's Russia!" Canada started to tear up but the radio started to static "C- Can- nada w- where R- Rus—" it cut out Canada press buttons "n- no NO! America!" He shouted before he stand up almost falling off the chair and ran over to his space suit and put it on as quickly as he can

Canada rushed and tied the rope around his waist doing the code and and rushing out when the door open and got out of the ship when the second door open once he got out he jump out to space moving his body and going to a spot and got back on the radio "AMERICA?!! You there!" Then Canada heard his brother voice "CANADA!! Where is Russia!" America was irritated Canada move the question to something else "I Don't Care! America Please Talk To Me! How Are You!"

America just sighed "Well I would of been doing good if you didn't disappear off the face of the planet! But otherwise I'm fine now as long your okey right?" Canada started to cry out of happiness "YES!! I'm fine I'm so happy I'm talking to you right now" he whine America laugh "gee cry baby I missed you so much what's been going on" Canada didn't have much words to say he was thinking so much "I'm out of the ship um Russia's satellite I wanted to talk to you so bad!"

America actually started to cry himself he try to laugh it off but Canada his younger brother already knows "aww Canada you don't know how worried I was for you and I'm still worried it's not over yet we're going to come get you!" Canada was about to smile but his smile slowly went away "come get me? W- Wait We?!" Ukraine came over already happy "CANADA!!" Canada awkwardly smile "Ukraine Hi whats up!" Ukraine was really smiling

Canada was about to say something but he felt arms around his waist he look over as Russia grab him pulling away Canada look at him "Russia what h- hey! What are you doing I- I Stop! Just Wait!" And America and Ukraine stare at the radio and Ukraine spoke "Canada?!! CANADA??!" He yelled and Canada all he heard was static and Russia brought him to the ship "What were you doing out here! Theirs going to be a rock storm in a bit we have to be inside!!"

Canada felt scared and anxious as Russia did the passcode and grab Canada and brought him inside the two stayed inside as Russia got mad "You Really Scared Me! I Couldn't Find You! I Knew You Hated The Rock Storm So I Wanted To Be With You So Your Not Scared!!" He shouted and Canada was holding his helmet he wasn't crying he look pissed "I WAS TALKING TO MY BROTHER!! HE WAS SCARED I NEEDED TO COMFORT HIM!! I Didn't Realize Until Now But You Never Talk To Anyone That I Was Here I Thought People Knew!! I Worried Everyone!! Because Of You!!!"

Canada was heavily breathing after yelling once he look up to Russia he didn't expect but seen Russia had tears going down his face and look away "everything is messed up because of me right?" Canada felt guilty and upset "n- no Russia I- I didn't mean to yell and blame you" Russia sighed and wipe his tears away "no it's fine l- let's just forget about everything you can go in the room I need to tell them now" Russia took off his spacesuit and turn away

Canada took his off and went to the room and sat there with the blanket around him as he felt guilty wiping the tears away and sighed "why am I crying I'm not the one who's hurt" then he felt the rocks hitting the ship he gasped as he got to the ground and lay on the floor holding the blankets over him and grab his petal fabric tiny piece of blanket and hold it in his hand thinking about Leaf being there to make him feel safe as he got light headed and faint

Russia he sat at his chair at the radio comfortably as the ship/ satellite shake from the rocks passing by or shifting and hitting the ship not hard enough to break it but enough to make it shake and he just sighed drinking from a bottle of vodka closing his eyes feeling nothing "he really doesn't need me there all the time...." as he thought he fucked up and doesn't even know why he listen to anything he went to his radio and spoke "Tell Everyone About Canada The Truth Is Out"

14 Every talk

Five months and three weeks and one day in space

Canada woke up on the floor in a bundle of the blankets in the room he push the blankets off him and the room was empty he got up looking around the room then went to the kitchen nothing he heard someone snoring so he went to the radio and Russia was sleeping on the floor with three vodka bottles surround him Canada stare at him for a second then sighed sitting beside him gathering the bottles in his hand to put them away in a cabinet

Russia started to wake up and look at Canada who was cleaning his mess he just look away grumpy "I can do it myself" as he slowly got up staggering a bit Canada look at him "if you can stand" Russia sat down on the chair holding his head "shut up" Canada was about to clean the desk but Russia grab his wrist "don't touch" and practically whack his hand away Canada sighed "I'm sorry what I said yesterday just let me take care of this"

Russia laugh "oh wow you're taking care of something that's crazy" Canada frown "Russia shut up your still kinda drunk" Russia sighed and look away "no also what makes you think everything is my fault it's your fault because out of all ships you have to come to mine I didn't even want you here in the first place!" Russia said aggressively so Canada just walk away "fine you deal with it! I'll leave you alone until your done being aggressive"

It was quiet then Russia grab Canada "I'm not done talking" Canada look at Russia's face "go clean yourself up Russia we can finish this conversation later when your sober" Russia frown "fine be like that I'll go do something else" the last part of the sentence was muttered but Canada left to the room and fix up the beds and was about to walk out of the room before Russia stumbled on Canada and Canada gasp "Russia! Your heavy!"

Russia sighed "I know" Canada whine under him slowly lifting him off before Russia started to hug Canada "I'm sorry Canada Ima mess and I said mean things to you" he hiccup in mid-sentence Canada laugh awkwardly "yeah I'm sorry too but you're squishing me" Russia kissed Canada before getting up and Canada lay there flustered starring up at Russia "eh.." Russia looks at him confused

Then Russia realized what he did and whack himself on the forehead mad "fuck why did I do that!" Canada just stand up and grabbed Russia and brought him to the bed "just go to sleep" Russia lay down then grabbed Canada to lay with him "I'm tired" Canada whine can't move by Russia's strength holding him there "Russia I still have to clean your mess" Russia didn't notice but he kisses him on the head "no you don't" Canada was so flustered and red laying there

When Russia woke up he had a headache he growl and didn't mean to wake up Canada "go to sleep" Russia sighed "why are you in my bed?" Canada whine "because you hold me captive" Russia was about to disagree but realizing where his hands were he then frown letting go of Canada "my head hurts" Canada got up and left the room and came back with a pill for Russia and Russia just grabbed it and swallow it

Russia lay down against and turn away from Canada facing the wall Canada frown "Russia I'm sorry that—" "I've already told them" Canada look at Russia confused "what?" Russia cover-up in the blankets "you told me to tell them well I did and what I got so far is that their making a ship for you to come back" Canada was silent didn't know what to say so Russia added "also isn't this what you wanted to go home and see your family"

Canada nodded slowly and was hesitant "w- wow that's amazing we get to go home" Russia look at Canada "not me you and only you I have to stay up here for six more months" Canada didn't feel cheerful anymore "your not coming?" Russia smiled weakly "of course I'm not I have my things to do remember you don't need me all the time you get to go home and see your family" Canada awkwardly smile "y- yeah m- my family" Canada didn't understand why he doesn't feel good about going now

"Do you know when I'm going" Russia shrugs "I have no idea how long it takes to make a ship but I heard that America already has a ship so he might come up here to get you himself" Canada started feeling more awful "what are you going to be doing here" Russia laugh "like I was doing before nothing I get to rest all the time" Canada felt this was going too quickly "R- Russia but—" "I'll be fine six months until I'm out of here and you won't even remember me" Canada whimpered "NO!" Russia was silenced

Canada was heavily breathing and overwhelmed clinging on to his hands very anxious or panicking of some sort "I- I Don't Want T- To Leave Y- You!" He said loudly and tears slowly going down his face Russia just smiled and laugh and grabbed Canada and pull him into a hug "Canada what am I going to do with you... you are not leaving now it'll at least take a few weeks" Canada push Russia gently away looking up at him with tears going down his face like waterfalls

Russia just leans down and wipe away the tears as he places a gentle kiss on Canada's lip "I'll be okey" Canada blush and is embarrassed as he rubbed his eyes making the tears go away and loving the warm feeling from Russia's hands-on him it was calm before Canada said, "m- maybe you can sneak on the ship with me..." Russia closed his eyes as he kissed Canada "I can't you have to go alone to go see your family" Canada look away upset "I want you to be part of my life" Russia sighed

"Stop acting dramatic your still staying here with me for a bit" Canada knows but he wants to tell Russia how he feels "Russia I love you," he said awkwardly holding his hands feeling shameful as Russia just smile "love you too" Canada relax as his heart flutter so Russia laughs awkwardly not knowing what to do next "want to go eat?" Canada felt really embarrassed because the energy of the room changed "y- yeah!" So the two went and eat Canada mind kept spinning about the words and Russia was finally happy that he told Canada how he felt

Canada finished up and thought about something he stand up walking down the hall and grabbed one of the laptops putting his password and username walking to Russia and Russia was confused why is he carrying one of his laptops "C- Canada" and Canada place it beside him and went on a picture "that was my crew" Russia stare at the picture seeing how silly and happy they look then he looks at this one fella that was so happy beside Canada "who's that" Canada rather not talk about it except he just grab Russia and brought him to sit on the ground

Canada and Russia were sitting beside each other as the laptop were between them and Canada click on the video Russia was still confused but saw the emotion on Canada's face so they both watch the whole thing" Canada after that stand-up and went to the room and grab something "this is what's left of the blanket" Russia finally understand why he keeps that torn fabric but he still has a question "so who's Leaf?" Canada frown he thought about everything

"Leaf was a good friend that I hurt bad..." Russia was going to say something but Canada cut him off "you know why they all died ... it was because of me" Russia notice this conversation is important and dark "w- what" Canada had a few tears going down his face "on my birthday I had to clean the vent on the outside the air thing and I didn't put the lid on properly and once I got back there was a rock storm and it went through the vents and the ending you saw Leaf saved me and I could of save all of them... what I hate the most was when I got back to the room with computers I seen that the video of me not putting on the led properly and was going to send to the space station... I destroyed everything and that's the worst I've ever done and the thoughts won't go away"

Russia hugs Canada "it's not your fault" "IT IS And I—" Russia just kept holding him and kissed him "Canada You Survived Your Alive And Leaf Wanted You To Stay Alive If And Not Blame Yourself If He Hated You He Wouldn't Have Saved You!" Canada hug Russia and started crying that's all he needed was for someone to tell him that he's worth the love and happiness

15 Eclipse OBJ

Five months and four weeks in space

Canada cuddle with Russia in the blankets feeling comfortable as Russia had a bad dream he was drowning underwater as Canada reach in the water for him but no matter how hard Russia try to swim upwards to reach for Canada's hand he just kept going deeper and started to give up as he slowly slips away and Russia woke up looking around startling Canada they made eye contact and Russia just lay back down on Canada's chest feeling relief

Canada just smiled because he knew it was just a bad dream so Canada rubbed Russia's back to comfort him "Don't worry I'm here" Russia grabbed the blankets fixing it so it's on both of them and Canada laugh and put on a Russian movie Canada forgot the T.v was there Canada didn't understand what was going on but he kept watching seeing what happens next as an 18+ scene happened and Russia realized and turn off the T.v

Canada couldn't help but laugh and Russia didn't care he lay back down and joked "Canada why are you watching that right now" Canada stop laughing and got flustered "I- I wasn't I didn't k- know to wait shut up Russia," he said getting mad Russia thought that was cute so they kissed and Canada kept melting more and more into the kiss and started to make out Russia stop before they go farther "pfft! you weirdo" Canada got embarrassedly mad grabbing a pillow and smacking it against Russia's face "S- Shut Up!"

Russia just laugh more to bother his lover and Canada sighed and right when he was going to say something Russia grabbed the pillow and hit him with it and throw the blanket on him "I'm going to go workout you can lay there" Canada push off the heavy blankets and seen Russia was gone he looked at the door mad "he always have to catch my heart does he" and got up and went to the work out room the two had fun fooling around from boredom and just having fun with each other

Canada took a breather from pushing himself he look over to Russia seeing him work out Russia catch him starring and chuckle "what?" Canada blush and walk to him and kissed him "nothing you just make me smile all the time" Russia kissed him gently "stop your distracting me" he joked Canada blush even more "love you" Russia stop what he was doing and kissed him "your so affectionate" Canada hold on to Russia cuddling him "yes I am and you are my drug" Russia face went red and stop Canada

"Okay just wait I need to clean myself up" they both changed clothes and went to eat something Canada couldn't help himself and had some thoughts in his head as he ate food just fantasizing about Russia looking at the window seeing the sun it was bright but he notice something the moon and the sun both met making an eclipse Russia look away amazed and shook Canada to point it out and Canada stare for a second before kissing Russia

The feeling of warmth love and then the radio interrupted them so Russia growl and went to the radio and it was America "Russia!!" He called out and Russia pick up "what.." he said slow and grouchy America frown "Where's Canada Where Is He!!!" Canada heard his name so he walk over to the radio and Russia just glared "it's for you" Canada smiled to hear America "Hi America!" The American finally calmed down

"America you freaked me out what happened! I couldn't reach you for a week or so!" Canada awkwardly laughs "well I've been hanging out with Russia" America had suspicions "hanging out? Russia are you holding Canada captive!" Ukraine got annoyed by America getting loud and walk over "Russia we're bringing Canada back in a week!" Canada suddenly felt anxious Russia had a feeling "Canada is here and is well also he can leave if he wants to I'm not the bad guy here"

Canada nodded "yeah it's true why can't I stay" he accidentally said immediately regretting it and Ukraine look at the radio thing confused "Canada are you joking? You have to come home" America agreed "are you crazy about what has gotten into you" Canada felt something like his feelings being hurt he doesn't understand why are they saying that Russia saw Canada's expression but he look away "so when are you guys coming again" Canada look at Russia

America looks at the clock "maybe sometime this week" Ukraine look at it again "maybe in four days" Canada gripes his hands "oh.." then the radio static up Canada sighed "you're with them too?" Russia frown "Canada their right also you were getting mad about it not long ago don't blame me also we can probably talk when your back down there"

Canada started to tear up "y- yeah I... I'm scared... if.. I don't see you again or I- it won't be the same because... of this..." Russia kneel down to Canada's height and wipe away those tears "you always confuse me a lot with all these emotions but it's actually nice to see you have them... I'll always love you no matter what happens and if you don't talk to me when your down there that's fine I'll just wait for you okey?"

Canada hugged Russia in tears and just wanted a hug he needed this hug they both do "it feels too soon I don't know when you are coming home" Russia blush "home" Canada realized that word just came out of his mouth -Home- he didn't know what that meant to him but it's a nice feeling and... he's confused why he said that Russia looks at Canada again "home?" Canada had an odd stare he look shocked but happy

"I- sorry" Russia chuckle and give him a little soft and gentle kiss "home is the right word I like it" Canada felt relief but theirs that hurting feeling inside that still wants them both home "l- love you" Russia blush "love you too" Canada sighed snuggling more into the hug "Russia.." Russia gave Canada a look "yes" Canada thought about what he was going to say "I don't know what's going to happen when I'm down there" Russia didn't think about that until now that Canada asks the question

"Well, they're probably going to get you help because of certain things and don't freak out when I'm not there with you okey" Canada grip on Russia's clothes feeling scared and sad "I'm sorry I've got attached to you... It's maybe going to be a problem" Russia sighed unhappy about that but he knows that during Canada's mental illness the way he started making him feel better was staying by him Russia kinda wish that he started trying to take a break because they do daily things together

"Honestly it's fine I'll understand but they won't" Canada frown "Russia I feel bad you had to deal with me" Russia laugh "that is also fine as long I didn't have to deal with my problems you distracted me now I'm started to hate attachment issues" Canada giggled "well this is going to suck for the both of us" Russia started to hurt "I want you to promise me one thing" Canada look at Russia "and what is that" Russia stare at Canada's eyes

"Don't cry when you leave" Canada look at Russia's nice purple eyes "that's something hard to promise" Russia just look away embarrassed "I swear if you cry I'm going to start crying and that's something I don't do" Canada nod "that reminds me why did you always tell me not to cry?" Russia completely forgot about that "I guess to make you stronger" Canada chuckle "no no no theirs another meaning behind it"

Russia just wanted it over with "because every time I see you cry.. you always look broken and knowing I couldn't do anything to help you because I'm not very emotional myself it made me feel hurt and... made me feel like I should also cry" he said the last part quietly it didn't matter because Canada still heard him "all your really just a big old softy" Russia look away mad "only around you I guess" Canada smiled "that's good enough for me I won't force you to be nice to others unless... I don't know"

Russia couldn't help but laugh "okey that's good" Canada loved the warmth from Russia as Canada tries to steal the warmth Russia just stared down at Canada thinking what if Canada gets hurt down there and he wouldn't be able to help he hated thinking about that "Canada" and Canada hummed for his response so Russia spoke "when I come home would you tell me everything like what you did" Canada had a big smile "Yeah"

16 Home?

Five months and four weeks and four days... leaving day

Canada knew days passed and he sat there by the door with all his things he did that yesterday to see if they're coming that day but they didn't so Canada waited there again he didn't want to look at Russia because he accidentally started crying he already kept going to Russia and stayed with him for a bit before going back to the door he feels bad that he's the only one leaving he wanted Russia to come with him but Russia still has to stay for six months

Canada look at the fabric in his hands he remembers when he couldn't touch it or even look at it he frown he couldn't sleep either he felt tired Canada started thinking he's overwhelming himself about everything he sighed taking a few breaths in then breathing out as he waited then Russia walk to him and sat beside him holding him hugging "on the radio they told me they're going to be here in a few minutes" Canada grip his hands "ok" then Russia left to his room before he went in he stops at the doorway

"Love you Canada" he left and that's when Canada had a few tears go down his face he only had a fabric so he went out of the ship and there they were passing through going slowly around so Canada put on a song he put on treehouse by Alex G it made him feel a little better and so the people help him on the ship and they went back down to earth Canada felt them landed he didn't feel good once they open the door it was too bright it hurt his eyes

Canada's eyes tear up from the brightness and he looks away America came running up to him and hugs him "LITTLE BRO!! What's up!!" He shouted hugging him Canada rubbed his eyes "my eyes hurt" Australia came up laughing and started to hug Canada "aww your home that's nice" New Zealand came running and join the group hug "Canada!!!" The bros hugged and Canada felt anxious and dizzy he almost fainted and Australia grab him "Woah pal are you okey?"

Canada's head spins as he breathes in and out "huh?" America help him up "here we should go somewhere safe" the four went to Americas Space station to stay only for a bit "Canada you can try to rest" Canada lay there "y- yeah" Canada felt dizzy and it isn't going away he lay there and fall asleep he then started dreaming he was in space again but he was with his crew and when Leaf pushed him in the closet making hit the wall and wake up

Canada woke up on the ground and the blankets haft on the bed he stared and hold his head as someone open the door "Russia how long was I asleep?" The person was confused and asked "Russia?" Canada realized that voice he look over and it was Ukraine "oh Ukraine I- I'm sorry I forgot.." Ukraine awkwardly laugh "thinking about Russia heh um so how are you" Canada didn't feel as much dizzy as before he just feel not used to here

"Hey where's my brothers" Ukraine look out of the room "they left but they wanted you to rest so I'm here" Canada nod "can you get me water I'm dehydrated" Ukraine left the room so Canada look outside the door it wasn't the space station where is he Canada got more confused and uncomfortable he look around outside of the room to see a T.v and couch or the table he looked at his room and there was a number on his door 112 he blinks

"Ukraine?" He called out and Ukraine came back "yeah?" Canada stare at the door and his room why did everything seem off "where am I?" Ukraine forgot to tell him "well I and America discussed your health and it turns out your going to be with me for a couple of months" Canada frown "oh okey but this isn't your house?" Ukraine realized "oh not at my house uh here in my institution" Canada hated that word "so what am I supposed to do here?" Ukraine look around "Come I'll show you"

Ukraine grabs Canada's hand to drag him around to show him everything like the washroom his room and the things on the T.v and another room for counselling Canada stop Ukraine "I- uh Ukraine ain't this too much?" Ukraine smiled and laugh "uh no Canada you've been up in space and your whole crew died and you were with Russia" Canada missed Russia only thing he woke up to was the floor

"Uh y- yeah about that Ukraine can I have time by myself for a few days to get used to being here" Ukraine smiled "I- Oh! yeah go ahead" and Ukraine left and Canada look at everything he hold his hands not knowing what to do he realized something where is his fabric he went to the room and it wasn't there or anywhere he started freaking out he sat on the couch calming himself down "don't worry m- my brothers might have it"

The door opens "Canada I brought food..." Ukraine saw Canada in distress "uh Canada?" And as soon he said their name Canada stand up and rush to Ukraine "Ukraine where's the fabric I had when I was with my brothers?" Ukraine thought about it "uh the ones that have flower petals on it?" Canada nod "yeah" Ukraine frown "was it important?" He said very anxious Canada started to feel the bad news "y- yeah!"

Ukraine was sad "I- uh I didn't know I'm sorry it's gone..." Canada's heart started to beat fast and faster "g- gone..." Ukraine has seen the shock in Canada's eyes "I t- throw it away I thought it w- wasn't important" Canada drop to the ground on his knees thinking about everything he's been through and what story that piece of fabric had and where it has been "Canada?!" Ukraine crouch down "Canada?! CANADA!"

Canada was breathing fast his hands were shaking what's happening the only thing he had the thing he cherished and got as a present before they passed away the only thing he had from that person he closed his eyes shutting them he didn't want to open his eyes ever again until he heard Russia's voice "Canada wake up Canada?" And so Canada open his eyes it was blurry and he was in the room and saw Russia he blink a couple of times never mind it's Ukraine

"Canada! Your up!" Ukraine said happy and scared Canada had tears going down his eyes he wipe the tears away "U- Ukraine?" Canada spoke forgetting where he was Ukraine touched Canada's head "what happened" Canada realized he fainted "oh I- I... my fabric it's g- gone How Could You!" Ukraine jolted "I didn't know I'm sorry what happened what was it!?"

Canada had lots of tears going down his face "That Fabric Was My Friends Present To Me Before He Died!..." Ukraine hug Canada "I swear I didn't mean it" he whispered to let him know Canada hated Ukraine and push him away he was so hurt he couldn't believe it he was lost in pain and didn't know he hurt someone else

17 Memory Lane OBJ

1 month in the institute

Canada was having a tough time in the institute he seem to have random panic attacks or problems with people he sighed holding himself in the room it was night time and he was by himself in the room it was quiet and he was crying he wasn't having it today he accidentally got mad at Ukraine again even when Ukraine is trying to help him Canada grip his clothes

"R- Russia," he said quietly Canada wasn't allowed to see his family unless he gets better but Ukraine keeps telling him he's not proving he's okey Canada was just tired of being in the institute he just wanted to see Russia and his family but he's having troubles with his emotions

Canada fall asleep on the ground again and had a dream he was with Russia on the spaceship they sat together and talk then the lights turn off flashing and Russia was about to say something but he didn't have time the space ship exploded and Canada woke up yelling and looking around freaking out his whole body was shaking he was gasping and breathing heavily after that nightmare

Ukraine came in and look at him he was going to say something but Canada hold his face "I- it was j- just a nightmare d- don't worry..." Ukraine walk to him "Canada don't freak out I'm going to get you back to sleep but you have to calm yourself down" Canada shake his head "n- no its f- fine" Ukraine brought to people in to hold him down as Canada kick and tried to get out of the grasp and they gave him a needle and next thing you know Canada was back to sleep

He wasn't dreaming or at least he thinks so he woke up and he felt dizzy and tired Ukraine was there and smiled "C- Canada hey! How are you feeling" Canada sat up touching his head and looking over to Ukraine "..." Ukraine just grab out his clipboard with a note on it of each day of the month "how are you feeling today?" Canada just blinks and looks away "tired.." Ukraine frown "Canada you say anything more than that"

Canada scratch his hands "upset" Ukraine wrote that down "what's upsetting you" Canada thought about last night "the nightmare" Ukraine nod "and what's it about this time?" Canada had some tears going down "when do I get to see Russia" Ukraine look away "Russia hasn't come back he's still up there" Canada sighed "the same nightmare" Ukraine wrote that down "Canada anything else to say?" Canada look at Ukraine

"You found the fabric yet?" Ukraine shake his head in guilt he's been looking for it everywhere and it's just gone Canada rubbed his eyes "I d- don't want t- to sleep" Ukraine grab Canada's hand "you haven't been sleeping for a week only an hour of sleep then you stay up that's bad Canada you need to sleep more" Canada grab the blanket and wrap it around him "I h- hate the n- nightmares" Ukraine let go "sleep is important though"

Canada remember when he couldn't sleep he slept in the bed with Russia and he sleep like it was his last sleep "U- Ukraine when can I get out" Ukraine frown "uh I can't say" Canada closed his eyes to let them rest "I'm sorry" Ukraine watch as his best friend was falling apart and started to cry for something he doesn't know like what's the relationship between him and Russia

Ukraine tried to comfort him but Canada kept pushing him away as he curl up in the blankets Ukraine felt his heart aching he sat there and talk to Canada "hey you remember when I and you went to the park and we sat by the lake and you were scared of the ducks and I just sat there giving them flowers" Canada gave no response so Ukraine kept going "I put the flower in your hand and you gave it to the duck and it got mad and attack you"

Canada remember that vividly he smiled softly still having his eyes closed tired "mh" he answered sounding happy or so Ukraine chuckle "that duck was mean so I had to bandage you up after and cleaned you cuts" Canada lay down on the bed as Ukraine told him more stories usually Ukraine tells Canada stories for him to calm down after crying or getting mad

Ukraine look at Canada laying on the bed "remember we had a

sleepover at your house and your brothers kept joking to you about me" Canada had a tear go down he wants to see his brothers again but he thought he had already done that and he accidentally scared them because his mental health Ukraine had to keep him here to try more options

"Canada you still listening?" Ukraine said only tapping him a bit Canada didn't move to act like he was sleeping then Ukraine smiled "okey goodnight" and left the room Canada heard the door closed and started to whimper in the dark he thought about Russia and what's he's doing or how he's feeling he hated sleeping by himself but when he ask Ukraine and they did Canada still had the nightmare and scared Ukraine in middle of the night

He felt like the room was too hot and sat on the ground it was cold he lay down on the ground grabbing the blanket it feels whatever he does a memory pops up and makes him remember what he did when he does something he roll towards the wall facing it looking at how blank the wall was the room had no designs it was just white no pictures of anything now he feels he's going insane

He kept almost falling asleep but he pinch him or did something to keep him up so he doesn't have that horrible nightmare it repeats itself over and over with different ways of how he and Russia dies in space and what keeps him up is that Russia never gets to say what he wants to say

18 Two Birds Sing

2 months in the institute

Canada was sleeping better and isn't having nightmares unless something triggers his thoughts he sat in the living room looking outside of the big window he sat there starring out only a few houses he always look at the clouds Ukraine came in with his usual check-ups "hey Canada I can see you had a good sleep" Canada nod still looking at the clouds "yeah"

Ukraine sat beside Canada and Canada he lean his head on Ukraine shoulder looking at the paper that's on the clipboard saying his illness and issues or problems and all Ukraine covered it up "you shouldn't be looking at that" Canada grip his hands "ok" and it was quiet for a bit but Ukraine spoke, "Canada I haven't ask you but what's you and Russia's uh... what's between you two?"

Canada blink "those clouds," he said trying to avoid the question Ukraine shakes his head "no like are you, friends, no? yes?" Canada put his head off his shoulder thinking about what they said to each other from the start to now his heartbeat with love and wanting to see him again it sucks being by yourself after finding love at the wrong time

"I'm hungry," Canada said looking at Ukraine and back at the window so Ukraine left and Canada stares at the sky "I'll be waiting too Russia don't worry just hang in there" Ukraine came back with some food and gave it to Canada "so my question" Canada yawn "what were we talking about?" Ukraine felt frustration trying to get info from him

"About you and Russia," he asked again Canada knew that Ukraine knows that he's playing dumb but it's better to just keep it a secret until their both together again "you know what I'm tired heh remember sleep is important" Canada got up and went to the room closing the door behind him Ukraine frown he hated feeling a bit jealous of what's happened between the two

Ukraine felt hurt too he just doesn't want to show it he stayed sitting by the window looking at the landscape wondering if he can do something so he got an idea he went to the room to find Canada laying on the floor "Canada what did we talk about stop sleeping on the floor it's not helping" Canada whine "it feels too hot in this room now leave I'm trying to sleep"

Canada closed his eyes and Ukraine smiled "well sleep on the bed but Canada I have an idea want to hear" Canada look over to Ukraine "..." Ukraine walk to Canada "we're going outside come on" Canada didn't have time to process before Ukraine grab his hand and pull him off the ground and went straight to the door opening it with his keys and leaving down the hall and on the elevator

"Hurry up" Canada was a bit uneasy on the elevator it felt gross he was a bit wobbly trying to stand straight then when the elevator doors open Ukraine grab his arm and rushed outside and once they're outside the two ran through the street to the park and Canada kept almost tripping from how fast they're going he stares at the park as fall was already happening he watch the leafs fall from the trees "wow pretty" Ukraine had a big smile "let's make a little leaf pile"

So the two did and the whole time the two were laughing and having fun throwing leaves at each other once they made one they both jump in it and lay there looking up at the tree Canada was amazed "this place looks nice" Ukraine nod "it's not too bad I like it" Canada didn't realize he said that out loud he meant to say it in his head but it's too late Ukraine already answered

Ukraine rolled in the leafs "we should go out more often" Canada thought of that "go out?" Ukraine gasp "n- no not like that I meant" Canada laughed which was the first he doesn't laugh as much as he smiled "it's f- fine Ukraine I already know what you meant" Ukraine look away embarrassed "ok" after of hours outside doing whatever they spotted a lake so they both sat beside it

Canada lay on the wet grass looking at the sky "You should bring me out more I miss nature" Ukraine felt more guilty "I'm s- sorry about everything Canada" Canada lay there looking at the sky "I'm still upset about a lot of things but as long as you said sorry It makes it better" Ukraine touch the water of the lake "why don't you talk to me anymore like we used to do?" Canada thought about how Russia felt when he didn't speak to him for months until he said a sentence

Canada had a few tears going down on his face as he laughed remembering how Russia's first reaction was grabbing him and jumping around happy Canada wipe away the tears happy "aw that dummy" he said quietly as Ukraine sat there confused "huh?" Canada shake his head "it's nothing" Ukraine frown "ok" Canada look at the water seeing the sunset "we should leave it's getting dark" Ukraine nod as they both went back to the institute

Canada had no more nightmares as it was night time he snuck out of his room to go to the living room to sit in front of the big window stargazing looking at the night sky he watch as he felt peace with himself he swear that he was leaving this month because so far nothing is wrong with him he felt better after him and Ukraine go on walks outside and talk to each other about the past and of course, Ukraine keeps asking about Russia

Canada has no idea how can he talk to Ukraine about Russia now their too close he knows if he tells Ukraine it'll either make him leave or he'll try to get closer Canada lay there looking at the sky "what do you think Russia what should we do" he asked starring up at the sky maybe sounding crazy but to him it made him feel calmer also it made him feel that Russia is closer than he thinks he thought for a second "I miss you... Love you"

He went to go grab the blanket from the bed and bring it back to the same spot he was laying and he lay there looking at the sky "sleep well Russia" and he went to sleep the next morning he felt a poke on his face and Canada got up to see Ukraine "the ground again?" Canada look around and notice from the living room the T.v was gone he didn't want to question it

"What?" Ukraine chuckle and put breakfast on the table "you have to eat" Canada nod and sat at the table he kept starring where the T.v was and he stop when Ukraine look over and look back "oh the T.v was broken just going to get it to fix but it's going to take a while" Canada thought about the T.v it wasn't broken it just sat there and sometimes he used it so he thinks again "how is it broken" Ukraine just laughed "it's an old T.v"

Canada didn't think much of it until he has seen the little table it sat on was gone Canada just frown and went to the indoor Gym he worked out only a few times other times he cried about certain memories but he's getting better at just waiting for a bit taking a break before doing something he sat there in started doing push-ups then started laughing when he remember about Russia telling him how to do it properly

Russia did one arm on both sides and showed Canada which Canada didn't learn easily I mean it look easy but it was tiring and hard because of keeping a good pace and steadying yourself Canada stop laughing when the door open to see Ukraine "hey Canada sorry the T.v couldn't be fixed I'll get a new one in the future" Canada thought "the future?" He thought it was his last month here

Ukraine nod "yeah ok you can keep working out I'll get lunch" Canada watch the door close and frowned sitting down on the mat "broken and now un-fixable what's going to happen next" Canada lay down on the mat doing stretches which he should have done in the first place before working out he stares at the ceiling "their so many colours and so many stars and feeling that everything is huge around you and the ground is cold," he said randomly then sighed "I forgot water of course"

19 Painting

4 months in the institute

Canada started to get bored after the T.v was gone so he sat by the window and draw when it's night time he draw Russia and his Ushanka and the stars and a bunch of random doodles he fall asleep there tired and the next morning Canada woke up to see Ukraine looking at his drawings and Canada rubbed his eye as he yawns tired starring and realizing Ukraine take notice that Canada was awake

"You draw this their good... mhm you like drawing Russia a lot" Canada hid in the blankets embarrassed of him looking through his notebook and just look outside seeing a clear sky like as it's already autumn and finally a clear sky Ukraine laughed "maybe sometime you should draw me" Canada didn't feel like too he was thinking about Russia when he draws that he's not very much thinking about Ukraine

Ukraine gave him some snacks and sat there "maybe I should grab some paint so you can paint on paper or wait I should go get it" and he left Canada just went to his room and closed the door before the door opens again and it was Ukraine giving him art supplies and left Canada shut the door again and look there were so many colours he looks at the paper then he looks at the room then had an idea he grabs paint brushes and put a chair at the door so he couldn't open it he started covering certain things up and so they won't have paint on it

Canada painted easily thinking about the colours of galaxies and flowers he kept scooping more and more paint as he splatters it on the wall and making it all sorts of colours as he was doing that he started mixing white with it so it made a glow look on it Canada stare at the one wall he look at his messy hands and clothes with paint he went to the next wall and he heard a knock at his door

He didn't want to open it so he responded "y- yeah" Ukraine tried to open it"Canada? Are you okey?" Canada looks at the mess he's making "y- yeah I just want to be alone for a day okey?" Ukraine leans against the door sitting there "Canada you shouldn't be locking the doors how is it locked anyway?" Canada laughed "I took one of the tables chairs" Ukraine look over and frown "okey next time can you tell me when you want to be alone and not lock your doors"

Canada always hated the rule of not being allowed to lock his doors he nod "sure but you have to leave me alone even on checkups and no forgetting!" Ukraine just chuckle "sure" and left him alone Canada finally finished the second wall he flop on his bed tired and quickly fall off "Shit!" He look at the bed forgetting he had paint on his clothes and there was purple on his bed he frown "shoot" he tried to clean it but it only smudges more making the sheets stained so Canada just covered it up hiding it "hopefully it'll just disappear" then going back to the third wall he started getting physically tired and mentally tired he lay on the ground

He then got up realizing he had to do the roof after a whole night and haft of the morning he just got on his bed not caring anymore and lay there tired then fall asleep having a dream it was just him at his house and the field with all the tulips he lay there as Russia was beside him and got close to him about to kiss and Canada got too happy and ending up waking up he woke up and seen the galaxies and frown "just a dream huh..." Canada started taking off the plastic bags he covered on the lights

He accidentally slips on the chair pulling the light bulb thing off and it didn't fall it just hang there Canada gasp starring at the thing he broke he grabs the wire and it flickered and Canada stop and just thought "was that a red dot?" He touch the wire again and he was right a random red dot was found on the lighting thing he shine a light on it and it reflected blue he cringe and fall off the chair starring up at it wondering why is there a camera there

Canada look around his room and started checking certain things as he kept the plastic around the light it was dangerous but it made it look darker in his room and not all bright after he unlock his door Ukraine was sitting on the couch and smiled looking at Canada "Hey! What's up?" He asked seeing Canada's expression and Canada had to shake it off "uh well I found a spider on my light bulb after painting and the light in my room is too bright so I put plastic around it

Ukraine looks anxious "oh heh um I didn't know you were scared of spiders?" Canada just laughed awkwardly "yeah I don't talk about what I'm scared of so I'm just—" "you painted your room?!" Ukraine stands up going to his room and looking at the paint he frowns and looks up at the light seeing the light is hanging out "how did you do that?" Canada awkwardly laugh I was trying to take off the plastic and fall off my chair when I spotted a spider" Ukraine nod and left "okey I'll get new clothes for you" Canada just smiled and waved him off before looking around the place

Canada look at the day and the month it started to get colder because winter is coming and after last month he hasn't found any other cameras so far he kept starring at the lights and sighed thinking this place is for people that have bad issues and illnesses and problems that's why their cameras nothing more he stated and barely goes In his room Canada look at the misty window with the clouds darkened and the night started to come more quicker

Canada sat with Ukraine and Canada lay his head on Ukraine's lap and kept wondering when is he going home "hey Ukraine" he spoke softly and Ukraine respond "yeah?" Canada look up at him "when do you think I'm going home" Ukraine had this look of worried and look away "next month I think" Canada nod and got up and stretch "is it okay if I ask you something?" Ukraine smiled "yeah" Canada covered up in the blankets "theirs a camera in my room did you know about it" Ukraine look like he thought about something "That camera is there just in case if you start harming yourself or anything" Canada nod "that would have been good to know a long time ago because I do a lot of personal things in my room" Ukraine understand "Canada I promise it's only for if you harm yourself it's nothing like that I was just scared I might lose you" Canada shivered "I want it out of my room okey? Because I feel uncomfortable about it" Ukraine nod "I don't mean to make you uncomfortable" Canada sighed "I wanted to get that off my chest"

Ukraine smiled "that's good you speak your mind and tell people how you feel that's a good sign" Canada look over at Ukraine "another question... why don't we have the T.v yet?" Ukraine look away "it's taking a long time to get here" Canada glared "if we can't get a T.v it's fine just wondering why you throw away a good T.v it wasn't even old or broken is there a secret behind that?" Ukraine shakes his head "theirs no secret..."

Canada thought that sounded suspicious "okey... good" he went to his room and closed the door happy that he talk about that but theirs something off about Ukraine isn't telling him something and he took away the T.v did something happen

20 Too Much Thinking

6 months in the institute

Canada work out the morning thinking how happy he was it was December and that's the month Russia is coming back his heart kept beating and beating thinking about everything he's been through he was all cheerful drawing and looking outside at the snow Ukraine came in the room and Canada look at him "Ukraine!" He said all happy and hug him Ukraine jolted and cuddle Canada "y- yeah!" He said trying to be happy

Canada kept hugging Ukraine "Christmas is close and am I leaving today!?" Canada always asks every day to see when he leaves Ukraine look kinda happy "yeah actually you leave today" Canada had a big smile "REALLY?!" Ukraine smiled "y- yeah" Canada couldn't believe it he jump on Ukraine with happiness and excitement Ukraine look at him and blush and hold him tight but Ukraine had something to confess he stop hugging and look at Canada eye to eye and that second Canada knew something was wrong

"What?" He said unhappy and scared Ukraine sat up and moved Canada off of him and sit down on the ground "Canada uh..." he look at Canada's eyes he look like he was going to say something he wouldn't like but Ukraine awkwardly smiled "I'm going to set up dinner for tonight when your about to leave" Canada had his happy smile again so he went and sat beside the window and look outside Ukraine put on some background music

As he cooked and made dinner and as Canada think what is Russia doing right now....

A few months ago when Canada was only three months in the institute

Russia lay in bed he didn't want to get up he felt sick he drink too much alcohol he got out of bed it was cold but he was used to it he sat on the bed and stare at nothing for a bit he was still tired and trying to wake up Russia holds his face feeling how sick he is and exhausted he was he wasn't having it at all it was just like when he was by himself again when Canada wasn't there where it all started like back to the beginning

Russia didn't do as much he barely ate he sat at the radio wondering why wasn't Canada talking on the radio to reach him do Canada had already forgotten about him he shake his head and went to go puke in the garbage after puking he lay on his back starring at the ceiling looking at nothing he looks at the window it's like the colours went away he sighed and hold himself

Russia sighed "it's only been a couple of months like two.. three I think Canada is probably dealing with people right now and can't talk to me..." Russia sat up and heard the alarm going off randomly he frown "again" he went to go check if it was a false alarm but it was so loud he went to see the computer and saw that he has ten minutes to get in the pod before everything is destroyed from the rock storm Russia ran to his room and grab only a few things and put on his spacesuit and his helmet and ran into the pod room he pressed a bunch of buttons

Russia closed the door and shoot the pod out of there and there it went going straight back to earth Russia watched the satellite/ship explode and Russia had a bumpy ride from the rocks and the pod kept shaking more and more as Russia had his seatbelt on feeling sicker then he should be he close his eyes thinking about how he could die from hitting the ground hard then the dark blue sky to a very bright blue sky Russia was almost blinded

Russia pressed another button and it put on the parachute for the pod to go down easily but right when he did the pod stopped and yank upwards in the air which Russia almost fall off his seat he then took off his helmet and puke he had a bad headache he squinted his eyes looking of the window it was so bright and he slowly got to the ground once his drop in the ground Russia got out of the seatbelt and took off his spacesuit as the pod open he took his first step tripping over a rock and falling

Russia met face with the ground he got up wiping the dirt off him he looks everything around him he doesn't know this landscape he looks at the pod and was about to leave but he went back and grab something and a bottle of vodka he kept walking looking around it was too bright he sat on the ground closing his eyes as he tried to get used to how bright it was and he couldn't he ending up fainting

Russia ended up waking in a hospital he had a bandage around his eyes he tried taking it off but someone wouldn't let him "hey you need to keep those on your eyes are hurting from the brightness if you don't listen to what I say your eyesight would get worse" so Russia sighed and he looks around even though he can't see "where am I" the person laugh "don't remember it's been a while I guess Russia" Russia has no idea and sighed then remember " Britain sir?" And Britain smiled "yes it's me lad how are you right now" Russia blink "well I can't see so I can be doing better"

Then Britain laugh then sat down "so you kept Canada huh" and Russia felt immediately unwelcome "uh yeah" Britain sighed "why didn't you say anything" Russia then talk to him about it having to make excuses and all Britain bought the excuse which Russia was glad about he then gasp "where's Canada now?" Britain shrug "I think with his brothers I couldn't see him but his brothers did" Russia nod "am I allowed to take off the bandage?"

Britain laugh "no" so Russia sat there "well I want to rest before tomorrow okey..." Britain nod "okey see you tomorrow lad" Russia lay down and blush smiling can't wait to see Canada then the next morning happened he took off the bandages around his eyes and it was good he can see again he left the hospital with his stuff and went straight to find America once he did America look at Russia "why are you down so early?" And started talking nonsense

Russia shakes his head "so I can't see Canada?" America nods "we couldn't see Canada he's having mental issues right now he needs time Ukraine said," Russia thought what he said "Ukraine?" America looks around talking "yeah so he let him have time and—" "Ukraine?" Russia spoke again and America look at Russia's purple eyes "Is theirs a problem?" Russia frown shaking his head "no"

Russia ended having to search for Ukraine and once he did Ukraine told him the same thing "You can't see him he's dealing with personal problems!" Russia growl "I Can Help Him Just Let Me See Him" Ukraine shakes his head "No Let Him Be Russia He's Already Dealing With Enough Stuff He Doesn't Want To Start Dealing With You!!" And Ukraine left mad Russia stand there looking at the ground "me?" Russia was confused "what did I do..." he started going back to his house and when he got home he notice something on a tree it look like it was stuck he walk to it and reach up and grabbed it and realized it was that petal fabric Canada cherish he put it in the pocket of his sweater

Russia went to his house and he look at the empty darkness then throw stuff that was on the table to the ground "Ukraine Doesn't Know What He's Talking About!!" He said getting mad but then realized "Is Canada still mad at me because of what I did... no he.. it's my fault FUCK!!" He said before breaking his window with something he had tears going down his face he had a lot of tears going down his face he sat on the ground and hold his face as he cried out loud he was in pain as he whimpered holding the fabric

21 Miss You

6 months in the institute... Leaving Day

Canada heard from Ukraine that the dinner was ready he went and saw the table was decorated and stuff on the table to look fancy Canada awkwardly laughed "wow isn't that too much?" Ukraine nervous smile "uh no I want to celebrate your day of leaving" Canada sat down and the two ate food Ukraine laugh as he was telling Canada a story "And after that on the hill where we used to go on all the time it's like feels less of what it should feel like I miss you... you know"

Canada nod looking at the food eating some "hey so after dinner I can leave" Ukraine taps his foot on the ground getting anxious "can you wait for a second" Canada was about to get up but sat back down "what is it Ukraine?" As he looks at the expression on Ukraine's face "what's wrong?" Canada asked again but Ukraine shake his head "Canada I... What's your relationship with Russia?" Canada frown "Ukraine I don't want to talk about this just—" "he seems to very much care about you" Canada froze when Ukraine cut him off by saying something like that

Canada gave Ukraine a look "what do you mean by that" Ukraine look over where the T.v was he sighed "I actually took the T.v away for a good reason but you need to understand that I did it for you and you're well being" Canada started to not like the sound of this "Ukraine?" Ukraine shakes his head "you remember when I took it away...?" Canada nod "yeah three months ago and you told me that you'll get a new one and all"

Ukraine hold his hand upset "uh yeah but the reason why I did was because of Russia... he was going to ruin your progress.." Canada didn't understand "Russia but he's" "no he isn't I met him months ago" Canada froze when he said that and his heart beating fast "m-months ago... what d- did you tell him" Ukraine had a guilty expression on his face he didn't speak so Canada repeated himself "Ukraine w- what did y- you tell him"

Ukraine sighed and had his hand up to his head feeling the heat from his forehead "I told him that you couldn't see him and he couldn't see you and... that you don't want to see him because of your problems..." Canada had tears going down his face he wanted to beat up Ukraine because of how much this affected him he shake his thoughts off as he cried Ukraine went and gave Canada a hug

Canada didn't react he wanted to push away but he couldn't he just moved away from him wiping the tears away "I- I don't h- have t-time for this Ukraine I- I need to leave now!" As Canada went to the door that went outside he stop and look at Ukraine "can't believe you" and left he walked outside it was snowing he walk away and went on a plane to go home once he made it home he slammed his door shut as he screams into his pillow

Canada wiped away the tears and calm himself down and grabbed the phone calling Russia he remembered from Russia giving him his number he didn't answer he called him three more times he didn't answer Canada cried as he hold the phone in his hand looking at the ground as he slowly slipped down the wall in tears he went to his bed and every hour he tried calling Russia and no answer still he was just hoping he was asleep than Canada fall asleep

Canada woke up from someone calling he answer happy "rus—" "Hey! Canada How Are You!! You Doing Better!!" America spoke so happy Canada hang up and they called him again Canada put his phone on silent and fall back asleep he afterwards got up because he couldn't sleep he rubbed his eyes and had a shower to clean him up and went to eat something there was nothing in his fridge he sighed and went to the living room

Canada grabs the remote and watches T.v nothing was good on he looks away from the T.v and someone knocks at his door so he went to go check it was America and his brothers he didn't want to open it but he just talks through the door "I want to be by myself a bit" America understands "Canada that's fine but wanna hear something cool" Canada waited for America to finish his sentence America question why his little bro didn't answer "well I'm going to have a Christmas party and a new year party! Are you coming?!"

Canada was going to decline but America laughed "pfft of course you are this party goes to you see you then have fun with your time off!!" And Australia smiled "see you later Canada" the two older brothers went and left so New Zealand sat beside the door and put a box there "love you bro see you sometime" and left with his older brothers Canada heard the box was there so he opens it and brought it in and dig inside it and it was some new clothes his brothers bought him

Canada sighed and grab them and put them on it look nice so he changed back to his lazy clothes as he stayed in his house and keep calling Russia but he never answers yet so Canada closed his eyes tired as he waited for Russia to call him back but he doesn't know how long that can be a couple of days went by and Canada still called he felt upset about himself he felt that he turn obsessed

he whacks himself with the phone a couple of times getting mad but he doesn't know what to do he sat on the ground holding himself then he saw a text on his phone that it was his brother so he look at the text and America asked him a question "hey can me and you and our family see each other we really miss you and care about you and France and Britain is getting worried lol" Canada finished reading America's text and look at his house he understood what he has to do next

22 Lover Wonder

December, 8

Canada started getting ready to go see his family and tried to shake off every emotion that keeps making him feel like shit he went and grabbed his winter boots and his nit sweatshirt with his big coat he put on the normal hat he has and wears all the time he got out of his house and walk a while to go to his car cleaning the snow from it and driving to the airport to see his family in Paris as Canada was on the plane looking down on the ground he loved the winter cold mountains with the mist clouds all over

He flew by his landscape and went to Paris he closed his eyes as he put on headphones to make it feel like he's the only one on the plane and the plane started to land after hours on the plane they gently landed and Canada left the plane going to the airport to get his suitcase he stands there waiting for it to show up it didn't show up for the first twenty minutes then he heard from the far "Canada!!" He looks over taking off his headphones "Canada!!" Canada seen his youngest brother run and hug him

That made Canada happy and hug him "Hey Zea where's the others?" New Zealand look around and smiled "they wanted us to hang out before we meet together?" Canada laughed "and why's that?" New Zealand smiled "because Im better than the others" Canada laughed more "of course you are just one second I'm waiting for my suitcase" New Zealand nod "figures" Canada and New Zealand waited there what felt like for ever until Canada seen his so he grab it and walk with his brother

"Canada I have an idea when we get home we should cook something with mom what do you think" Canada smiled hearing his younger brother talk "we should and what else we should do?" New Zealand grab his notebook "maybe we should go on a walk and catch up" he said sounding like he was reading something Canada look around at the city feeling the cold air "hey did anyone talk about anything new" New Zealand shake his head "nope why?"

Canada shrugs "um because I just wanted to know"

New Zealand sighed "is this about Russia" Canada mad eye contact with New Zealand fast "Did He Show Up!" Accidentally shouting and making a seen New Zealand look at him confused and shake his head "nope why?" Canada frown "uh nothing let's just get out of public" New Zealand walk by Canada side wondering about the two "hey we keep secrets between us right?" Canada was about to say something but cut off "I want to know what happened up there with you and Russia and I guess down here with Ukraine"

Canada sighed scratching his neck anxious "right now? It just—" "Canada please it'll make me understand more plus I'm the most trustful out of the brothers you know that" Canada nod but didn't want to right now "I'm going to only say about Russia but don't say anything and don't freak out" New Zealand smirk and laughed "pfft when do I freak out" Canada thought about a lot of times

New Zealand realized and shake his head waving his hands "No! Stop thinking!!" Canada laughed "ok but because you said so anyway uh well... we kind of love each other" New Zealand stop walking and look at Canada and Canada look back at him as New Zealand had a different face expression "how do you kind of fall in love it's either love or not.. not just kind of?" Canada kept walking as New Zealand followed him on the side walk

"Ok it's love but I wasn't good up there" New Zealand was even more confused "you weren't good? Like what weren't you good at?" Canada sighed and chuckle looking at New Zealand with frustration "just listen stop asking questions" New Zealand nod "fine only because you asked" Canada glared thinking that's funny "ok anyway we fall in love but I left you know that and I stayed at the whatever that place was for six months just to find out Russia was by himself for three months"

New Zealand trying to wrap his head around this "so you guys have separation issues? Or—" "yes" New Zealand started to think and stop Canada walking Frances house "then should you go see him what are you doing standing here with us" Canada froze "what..." New Zealand laughed "I don't care go see your man he's probably doesn't even know your out" Canada thought about what Ukraine said and started to tear up

New Zealand seen so he grab Canada's wrist and making him follow as they went to the park as they sat down and watch as little snowflakes landed around them or on them New Zealand sighed "so theirs more to the story... Ukraine?" Canada awkwardly laughed wiping away his tears "how are you guessing all the right things" New Zealand also laughed with his brother "because I know also because it seems Ukraine told America"

Canada stop what he was doing "ugh why does everyone want to join in on what's happening why can't—" "hey woah bro chill don't stress I'll take care of it along with Aussie and we can see what we can do as you go see Russia" Canada shake his head "no I should go see our family tell them what I'm doing and leave" New Zealand smiled "well first you need to stop crying" he joked Canada sighed leaning back on the bench looking up at the stars

"I just remember when I left Russia told me he would be waiting... is that something random to remember now?" New Zealand smirk "maybe it's a sign he's thinking about you" Canada sighed as he tried to hold back the water fall trying to escape is eyes "thanks New Zealand for this... you have no idea how much this help me" New Zealand had a big smile "that makes me happy to see you crying away" Canada nudge his brother "pfft didn't you a second ago telling me to stop crying"

New Zealand whine "hey I was joking like we always do" Canada started to feel better and comfortable so he hug his brother and cried not saying anything and little few words can always make others feel way better as New Zealand comfort pat his brother "your such a cry baby" he joked Canada started laughing and wiping his tears away "says you but we should head to moms"

So the two went to Frances house and once they got inside France welcome her two boys "Hey you two what happened on the way here?" America was on the couch with Australia "yeah what took you guys so long!" Australia nod "how were the roads were their icy" Britain seen Canada's face expression "what's wrong lad" Canada sighed "I'm sorry but I'm going to leave tomorrow back to... Uh we'll I'm going to go see Russia " it was awkward silence

New Zealand stand there and frown looking at Australia and gave him a sign and Australia realized and gasp "oh yeah that's fine you can do whatever you want I'm just glad to see you Right America" he said nudging his brother roughly "Right!" America look away thinking about Russia and sighing in defeat "yeah I'm glad to see you right now" France look at Britain "mhm sounds like a story time right now" Britain sighed

"Well I met Russia when he came down from the sky like a shooting star" Canada slowly sat down with his brothers on the couch and New Zealand just sat on the ground but Canada got off the couch and sat beside him giving him a soft smile as Britain sat at a chair that was by the couch talking about Russia at the hospital and America talk about Russia wondering where Canada was and when he went to go to Ukraine

Canada felt so heart warm hearing them talk about Russia looking for him he sighed and it was dark so they had a family night and Canada and New Zealand went to bake cookies with their mom as a Christmas movie was on in the background and their two older brothers ate popcorn and watch the movie they all had a good time Britain just sat there with America and Australia

23 He Waited For You

Canada left on a plane to go see Russia and once he landed he got off the plane and went to the airport getting his suitcase he grab it and went to go out of the airport as he called Russia a couple times he didn't answer he sighed gripping his hand then he called Ukraine and Ukraine pick up "hey..." Canada sighed "don't start I just want to know his address" Ukraine wasn't think he just woke up yawning "who's address" Canada was trying his hardest to not freak out "don't play dumb you know"

Ukraine kind of woken up and nod "oh sorry yeah I'll text you it and do you need—" "thanks talk to you sometime" and hang up Canada look at his phone as Ukraine gave him the address so he stared at his phone it look like he lived out of town so Canada got a taxi to give him a ride it was hard because of language barrier but he managed he payed and went to the house it was on a hill and their was so much snow so Canada slowly got up and got to the door

He stand at the door blushing he was about to knock but he stop and thought about something "what if he hates me because I didn't talk to him..." he said under his breath he hold his hands as his brain told him to knock on the door already Canada kept overthinking so he shake his head and knock it was quiet he patiently waited until he knock again and the door creak open sounding off of a horror movie he notice no one open the door he peak inside and it was like no one was home he walk right in feeling sketched out

Like he shouldn't have walk inside he closed the door behind him and of course the door was so loud closing it his heart rate went up and he took off his winter boots and called out "Russia!?" No answer he called Russia because something was off he heard the phone ringing so he walk down the hall opening one of the rooms no one he check all the rooms no one he look at the house it looked haft empty and some glass on the ground he turn on some lights and look around their was no pictures he sighed

"Where are you... I thought you would of been waiting here" he said to himself as he sat on Russia's bed and lay there blushing because his blankets smell like Russia he then called again trying to look for the phone and found it on the ground under destroyed things he look and their was a lot of miss texts and calls since months ago he started to panic "Where have you gone" he look at all the texts seeing who talk to him looking for clues but it wasn't stuff that were his business

Canada frown "it's like you disappeared... I can't stop here I guess it my turn to look for you" he called Ukraine and he answered "where's Russia" he said quickly and Ukraine was just having breakfast "he's not there?" Canada shake his head like Ukraine could see him "he's not here I'm in his house and his phone is here and the house is a mess do you know where he could have gone" Ukraine shrug "I don't know he doesn't talk to me he doesn't visit me" Canada whine "shoot" Ukraine was going to say something to start an conversation

"Sorry Rain not now" so Canada hang up on Ukraine again then remember when Russia and him were talking about home Russia said that he'll stay home for a bit then go visit his siblings Canada got so happy but he doesn't know where his siblings are so he text Ukraine about the information and Ukraine send him all their addresses which when Canada got them he was shock to see all of them he frown "I can't go to all those places I have to... wait" he text Ukraine about their relations with them and Ukraine told him

So Canada chose Belarus and Kazakhstan and right when he got outside it was too late it was nighttime Canada sighed and close the doors and turn on the heat and seen that their was a fire place he sighed and got on his boots and coat to go outside Canada look around the house for wood but their was none except he found an axe he gently pick it up looking at it "cool" he spoke liking the blade and walking to the forest he didn't want to chop something big he's only staying a night

Canada found a fallen tree so he went and chop it in pieces as he carried four back and had to go back and grab four more once he got their it started to snow he frown as he walk back as the mist started to come in he made it back and brought the would inside and made fire he close the door and lock it and went to take off his winter stuff by the door and hang it up he was about to leave but he seen a sweater he stare at it and blush

Canada sat by the fire wearing one of Russia's sweater with a blanket wrap around him he lay down on the floor after putting down a mattress to sleep on he lay there curl up in the blankets putting a lot of wood in the fire "I'm not built for this kind of weather" Canada shivered and it started to randomly warm so he fall asleep waking up next morning yawning and rolling on the mattress and he got up starring at around forgetting where he was then remember

"I have to go catch a flight now" he got up changed use Russia's shower it was cold but he warm up by the fire then went to go outside to see the snow was to his legs Canada frown "mhm try stoping me snow" as he slowly walk through it going down hill and stepping on a wrong spot and slipping and fall in snow he got up shaking it all off him a bit later he finally made it to the airport he waited for the next flight

Hour passed and Canada finally got on the plane he close his eyes fall asleep a few sways happened as he got to where he needed to be the plane landed and he got off and airport then got his stuff left and got a taxi Canada said the Address he got to the house as he stand there awkwardly and knock the door open and a red white green flag open the door he look at Canada confused "yeah?"

Canada stare at him "Belarus?" And they nod "yeah I'm belarus who's asking?" Canada felt relief he didn't knock on some strangers door "sorry I didn't mean to disturb you" Belarus look around "your not disturbing me so what's the matter?" Canada sighed "is Russia here?" Belarus smirk "oh so your the one he's talking about of course you come crawling back you got something to say"

Canada was confused on what he said "no I mean I need to talk to him" Belarus sighed "he's my big brother and you hurt him a lot so do you got something to say... say it to me" Canada thought is was Ukraine was saying what did he get into "no Belarus we got on the wrong foot" Belarus shake his head "no I'll show you where my foot goes" before someone push him out of the way "Kazakhstan what the heck"

Kazakhstan look at Canada "so why are you here because it seems theirs way more commotion out here" Canada was getting frustrated "you guys got it all wrong Ukraine is the one who said it not me I didn't even know he came and visit me I didn't even get to see him or I didn't even know he was here until I got out" the two were quiet as Canada was tearing up he didn't realize it until he look away embarrassed wiping the tears away

Until the three went quiet when they heard someone yelling from upstairs "Who's That Downstairs!!" Canada remember that voice that accent his heart started to beat as he was about to go inside Kazakhstan stop him "Russia is different now just wait down here we'll talk to him" he said closing the door on him Canada stand there then look at the bench that was in the yard so he sat there

It was cold Canada can see his breath in the cold air as it disappeared he stare at the sky then seen someone looking at him through the window he turn to see but they closed it Canada started getting worried all what keep going through his head was "he waited for you and you can do the same" the door open and Canada got out his head to meet eye to eye with russia those purple eyes made him blush and almost cry "Canada" russia said

December 9 They Met

Canada stand up looking at Russia trying not to cry or freak out but something was off Russia look away "hey" he said Canada slowly walk to him lots kept going to his head "Russia" he look up at him Russia didn't know what to do he look hesitant so Canada started to tear up and hug Russia he cried out loud holding Russia as he gasp in each cry Russia tried to hold in his tears he didn't want to cry he sighed and smiled "your always crying"

Russia sat down as Canada got on his lap and wrap his arms around Russia crying more Russia just hold Canada gently "I- I thought... you didn't want to see me again..." Canada just cuddle into Russia's chest "I never w- wanted to l- leave you in the f- first place d- dummy" Russia had tears going down his face as he still kept a smile holding Canada and as that's happening Belarus watch from the window "so that's him" Kazakhstan was shock "never seen Russia cry in a while"

Belarus nod "yeah... now they better stay together or else I'm going to get a stick" Kazakhstan laughed "you can't force it" Belarus glared "for his happiness it's worth it just to see him smile and cry again" Kazakhstan sighed "I'm going to go get them inside before they get a cold" Belarus look at the house " I'm going to cook something warm and hot want to help me?" Kazakhstan shake his head "nah you can do it yourself" Belarus glared again "whatever" and Kazakhstan went to the door and open it

Canada look over at the door to see it open and Russia seen Kazakhstan "what" and Kazakhstan look at the sunset "uh it's getting dark and colder come on it" Russia grab Canada and brought him inside the house it was nice and warm Canada took off his winter stuff and Russia hold Canada's hand to bring him upstairs once they went up to what look like Russia's room

cuddle him with his arms around him Russia lay back as he grab the blanket and cover both of them up they didn't talk for an hour just enjoying the company from each other after a bit Russia put on some music it was nice Canada look at Russia his face was still red from the cold or so "Canada you don't know how long I've been waiting for this but I love you and I missed you so much" Russia gave him the petal fabric

Canada felt like he cried too much "thank you for not giving up on me" as he gently grab the fabric not going to question how he got it as Russia think about what Canada said he thought that he almost did but he had to keep reminding himself that Ukraine said it and Canada was nowhere to be found "it took a while... I... I thought you didn't like me anymore and you—" "Russia shhh I'll always love you because your special to me remember" Russia hold Canada tight "special" Canada smile "yeah don't ever think differently ok" Russia smiled "I won't"

Canada thought about his family "you know it took guts to come see you I thought you'll either push me away or something but my younger brother had to convince me because after talking to him about everything he told me what am I doing here go see him and you don't know how bad I needed that" Russia notice his hat and grab it and switch their hats

"Well tell your brother thank you" Canada face was red having Russia's hat on "y- yeah" then they heard from downstairs "Dinner Is Ready!!!" So Canada got off of Russia and Russia got up and Canada forgot about the height difference for a second his face was hella red and Russia look down and notice "are you wearing my sweater" Canada wanted to scream at himself he forgot to take it off Canada just awkwardly look away "maybe"

Russia laugh "so you stayed at my house and take one of my sweaters" Canada was embarrassed "I'm not used of your winters and I was outside getting fire wood" russia forgot that he hasn't been at his house in forever "sorry Canada I didn't know that well next I'll remember to leave fire wood at my house just in case you sneak by there again" and Russia went downstairs smiling as Canada stand there with a red face

Everyone was downstairs having some nice dinner just chicken soup it was yummy as they all talk about their old memories when they used to hangout Canada like hearing them their different then his he smiled looking at Russia and Russia smiled back at him "what are you smiling about" Canada look away and kept eating "nothing" so Russia just got close to Canada and kissed him on the cheek

Canada stop what he was doing and touch his cheek flustered about how soft it was he was going to say something to Russia but Russia stole his words by kissing him on the lips Canada loved it and melted it almost turn into a make out until Belarus laugh "love birds" so Russia remember his siblings were there and blush in embarrassment going back to his seat and Canada was still daze from the kiss and look away

Kazakhstan laughed and grab his bowl and put it away as the others did Canada went back upstairs with Russia once the two got in the room Canada was going to say something but Russia wanted to finish the kiss/make out and Russia gently put him on the bed and kissed him more Canada blush as Russia's hands travelled under his shirt until Belarus open the door "hey guys I made hot chocolate..."

Canada was so flustered he was going to die Russia just gave his brother a stare and Belarus just awkwardly laugh "I'll just set them here" as he put them on the desk and was about to shut it "don't be too loud some of us have to go somewhere early in the morning that goes for you Russia" and closed the door so Canada look at Russia "your leaving" Russia sighed "yes but no at least not you were going snowboarding tomorrow as a family time... and I just forgot"

Canada laughed "of course I'm coming that reminds me when I and Rain... never mind" Canada stop himself from saying anymore he doesn't feel like talking about Ukraine right now so Russia gave him a kiss "it's fine we can talk about everything sometime"

The next morning December 10

Russia woke up early and got ready and noticed Canada was still asleep he didn't want to wake him up he went downstairs to check on his siblings already trying to leave he frown "can we wait for a bit" Belarus sighed "is he still asleep" Kazakhstan chuckle "just wake him up" Russia shake his head "no he's tired I just want him to rest" Belarus cross his arms "what are we going to do" an hour later Canada woke up and he was in the car he got up fast startled

Russia gave him another kiss "shh it's ok your with me" Canada calm down then question looking at his clothes "why are we in a car" Russia laughed "we're driving to go to the mountains" Canada got comfortable in the blankets "should of woke me up" Russia chuckled "you would of been sleeping in the car anyway" Canada sighed "yeah but I would of changed at least" Russia pull out his sweater "you can wear this" Canada grab it and put it on "t- thanks"

After a while they finally got to the mountain and grab their stuff and went to the waiting room to put their things away and put on their stuff Canada awkwardly sat there tired wearing his winter sweater having his eyes close until he felt something getting wrap around his feet his eyes shot open to see Russia putting on a snow board on him Canada was going to say something but cut off "I had to rent one for you because Belarus didn't bring yours by accident"

Canada nod but he was confused why put it on now and why doesn't he let him finish or at least let him speak Canada laughed "why don't you let me say anything" Russia laughed with him "because I already know what your going to say" Canada glared mad "am I literally that—" "yes you are" Russia finished Canada sighed in defeat "fine" Canada and Russia with his siblings was about to leave but Belarus smiled and went to go hug someone

Russia seen and kept walking so Canada was about to look but his face was push to look forward by Russia "it's no one" Canada nod "ok" they kept going and went to the ski lift to go up the mountain once they got up Russia help Canada down of the ski lift "do you know how to snowboard" Canada nod "yeah use to all the time" Russia smirk "wanna race" he said serious Canada just softly had a sly smile "and what's my prize if I win"

Russia thought about something "only one sweater that I have... any sweater that's mine... you can take" Canada smiled "ok" Russia slowly getting ready on his snowboard "what do I get when I win" Canada didn't know what Russia want so he shrug "anything I guess" Russia got up "ok funny that you said that I'll see you down" and he left Canada gasp "Hey!" He said mad and getting ready then went speeding down seeing Russia doing tricks going down

Which motivated Canada to try some he almost failed but made it he was surprised he never did tricks in a long time he seen a jump so he took it and did a 360 and landed it going past Russia and Russia glared "show off" Canada laughed yelling back of him "you were showing off in the first place!" And Canada kept going down side by side because it started to get steep as Russia notice and started to follow his lead going side by side but opposite from him

Canada blush seeing that and try to not get carried away "stop copying me" Russia went beside him "hey I thought it'll be cute" he said smirking Canada push his face away "only one thing that's cute to see you in last" as he started going down really fast Russia sighed "fine I'll play it your way" Russia seen some jumps and he took them going up in the air past Canada as he didn't even stare at Canada he was looking at what seem to be the finish line he landed and past it and Canada came about two minutes after

"Holy shit how did you landed that" Canada said amazed Russia shrug "I've been going snowboarding down this mountain with my family since I was little" Canada sighed "damn so what is the thing you want non of my clothes fit you" Russia just laughed "I don't want your stuff I want you... either stay with me or I come stay with you" Canada was flustered he was thinking about everything "wow wasn't expecting that"

Russia just smiled "well what's it going to be" Canada thought about this carefully he rather Russia come stay at his house "your staying at my place" Russia sat down in the snow "is it because how cold is it at my place" Canada nod "yep" Russia grab Canada to make him lay in the snow "yeah I wonder where's my siblings are" Canada was tired "probably taking their time coming down" Russia frown "I thought they'll—" "we'll what?" Belarus appeared out of thin air

Canada and Russia gasp and Belarus was drinking some hot chocolate "I was down here waiting for you two so how was it" Canada was confused "but how?" Belarus shake his head "pfft I heard you guys were racing down the hill so I wanted to join but I seen you two goofing off like love birds you are" Canada and Russia blush then Russia realized "then who's watching Kazakhstan?" Their was silence and Belarus sighed "I'll go get him"

Belarus left giving Russia his hot chocolate which Russia enjoyed drinking Canada look at Russia "does this always happen" Russia thought about it "well only a few times when we're little but dad was there to go help him he let me watch my siblings" Canada just blink remembering how much siblings he's had "was their trouble?" Russia chuckle remembering his memories "yes because I was bad at it I let them do anything even fright because I'd enjoy watching"

Canada look away "we had different childhoods" Russia look at Canada confused "your siblings ever fight each other? Or with you? Or you fight them?" Canada shake his head "just my parents and my older brother but that was because he thought he can easily win" Russia joked on the hot chocolate coughing it out "that's something" Canada sighed "that was stressful"

December 25 America's Christmas party at his mansion

Canada was helping his brother with the party "Canada can you help me wrap the presents" called help from New Zealand so Canada smiled "yep" and sat beside him wrapping them up as they watch their older brothers goof off with the tree Canada glared smiling "those two know how to have fun" New Zealand laughed he couldn't help it "yeah those two are the life of the party" Canada sighed "yeah how much do you think we have to clean up after the party?"

New Zealand shake his head "throw the whole house away I'm not cleaning it up" Canada had a big smile giggling "that's true" America and Australia seen the two laughing out loud "what are you think their laughing about" Australia asked America shrug "beats me hey want to climb the tree to see who can put their star on first!?" Australia stare up and down the tree "I don't know who said you can beat me that's barely anything "

America put on his cow boy hat "well let's see ready sit Go!" New Zealand tap Canada and pointed at the tree as it fall over Canada frown "You Guys That Took For Ever To Put Up!!" Australia pointed at America "He Challenged Me That Should Say Everything" New Zealand shake his head "America You Should Know How Australia Gets About Challenges!!!" America gasp "what he should of known I would win anyways" then the two older brothers started fighting

New Zealand sighed "those two buggers why they had to do that to the tree" then they heard someone "there it's up" Canada knows that voice from anywhere he look over to see Russia "Hey!" He said all happy Russia smiled "why was the tree on the ground?" And they explained so Russia understand "wow anyway me and my siblings came to help" so they fix up the presents and the tree and put decorations up

russia as the party started and a lot of people showed up Canada didn't want to be by anyone right now so he went to left and Russia look over his shoulder and asked "you ok?" Canada nod "I just want to be by myself" Canada walk out of the room and went outside in the garden and sitting down at the bench "why does everything feel like it's moving too fast" he said sighing then he heard someone coming "Russia I said I want to be alone"

The person stop and awkwardly said "I'm Ukraine not Russia" Canada look over to see Ukraine did a little wave" Canada just stare at him looking a bit mad "why aren't you at the party" Ukraine shrug "your still my best friend Canada and your by yourself in the garden in middle of a big party something has to be up" Canada frown "Ukraine I need time by myself I don't want to see you I rather see my siblings or Russia then you"

Ukraine sighed upset "Canada I'm doing the best as I can being nice and trying to be friends again but why do you keep brushing it off your shoulders like nothing!" Canada close his eyes telling him over and over don't do something stupid or you'll regret "Ukraine and I'm trying my best to forgive you but that's taking longer then I thought" Ukraine breathe in and out "You can't just keep thinking of yourself think about how I feel right now!!" Canada heard Ukraine trying not to yell and that's frustrating him not to yell back

"Ukraine just understand me—" "No!! It Seems You Only Care About Yourself!!!" Canada stand up and look at Ukraine face to face "Ukraine Just Be Patient With Me!! I'm Trying And Trying!!!" Ukraine just shoved Canada "Your Not Trying Hard Enough! Your Just Like Russia" Canada had enough and push Ukraine to the ground and got on top of him and punching him in the face over and over letting his anger out until he stop feeling his knuckles hurting and blood on it and Ukraine look scared of him as their blood going down his face and tears going down Canada's face

New Zealand was watching from the far and was about to go stop his brother from anymore but someone grab him he look back it was Russia he try squirm to out of his grip but Russia said "no no just wait watch" New Zealand shake his head pushing him "Canada needs me get off me" then they both shut up as they heard Canada cried he had lot of tears going down his face as he lean on Ukraine's chest shaking and Ukraine look at him confused

Canada grip Ukraine's clothes he couldn't breathe he was so upset what he did and regretted it he didn't want to hurt him he just "Canada I'm sorry" Canada got out of his thoughts hearing that he look at Ukraine scared and Ukraine just hug him and Canada didn't know what to do so he wrap his arms around Ukraine crying in pain as in what he did to his best friend and Ukraine just look at the blood on his face

"I didn't mean to push you and I don't know how much I hurt you until I seen you crying as you look at your knuckles scared and crying as you lay down on me" as Canada was crying and Ukraine comfort him Russia let go of New Zealand and walk away as he was left confused "wait what happened?" Russia look back and just kept walking till he got inside so New Zealand was going to go see Canada but something told him they both should be left alone

After everything and their both in the washroom as Belarus gets mad at both of them "You guys are best friends why are you hitting each other—" "you wouldn't understand Belarus" Ukraine said Canada and Ukraine got whack with a paper on their heads "your parents didn't teach you like this" Ukraine whine rubbing his head "I already got whack enough why me" Belarus whack Canada on the head again "fine Canada I thought you were better" Canada whine "I'm sorry ok is that what you wanted to hear"

Russia and Kazakhstan and Canada's siblings just watch as Ukraine and Canada keep getting whack by a rolled up news paper by Belarus telling things they already know as America snickers "well this definitely I'm going to remember" and Belarus whack him with the paper "you better so you don't go on and do this" America Yelp "hey what did I do?" Russia just laughed "just shut up and go enjoy the party" Australia just look around the room to see them laughing and having fun joking

"We should hang out like this next Christmas just us" New Zealand smiled "yeah this is nice" Belarus finally put down the paper "honestly yeah I actually like this" Kazakhstan nod "yeah I guess next is news year party" Russia sighed "well I'm going to go find something to drink wanna come Canada?" And Canada smiled

"yeah" even though he doesn't drink and everyone laugh as they see Russia drunk dancing with Canada or Australia and America chasing each other around and Kazakhstan bandage up Ukraine as they both talk and New Zealand watches his brothers and Belarus walk to him and look at everyone having the best night and the two Belarus and New Zealand just sat there watching everyone had fun as they had a nice chat with each other

Then as the party settle down and everyone was giving each other presents and Russia sat by the wall with Canada holding him so he stays with him and America walk up "hey bro open my present" Canada open it and it was a new hat he smiled "thanks" and New Zealand gave his and Canada loved it "a scarf thank you" and Belarus walk to them giving Russia something "here brother you will need this" Russia open up his and he questions "is this a mistletoe?" Canada kissed his lover and Russia face went red

THE END

Thank you for reading this book I hope you enjoyed it love you all and their won't be a second volume of this book or part two or anything it ends here
